Daisy Bates in der Wüste Julia Blackburn,2021-03-29 Law's Anthropology Paul Burke,2011-11-01 Anthropologists have been appearing as key expert witnesses in native title claims for over 20 years Until now however there has been no theoretically informed detailed investigation of how the expert testimony of anthropologists is formed and how it is received by judges This book examines the structure and habitus of both the field of anthropology and the juridical field and how they have interacted in four cases including the original hearing in the Mabo case The analysis of background material has been supplemented by interviews with the key protagonists in each case This allows the reader a unique insider s perspective of the courtroom drama that unfolds in each case The book asks given the available ethnographic research how will the anthropologist reconstruct it in a way that is relevant to the legal doctrine of native title when that doctrine gives a wide leeway for interpretation on the critical questions Mirabella ,1995 Daisy Bates in der Wüste Julia Blackburn,1995
