Chernyi Kvadrat:

Chernyi kvadrat ŪriŪ Ūdin,2005 The Imperial Trace Nancy Condee,2009-04-08 In this study Condee argues that we cannot make sense of contemporary Russian culture without accounting for its imperial legacy She turns to the instance of contemporary cinema to focus this line of inquiry This book centres on the work of Russia s internationally ranked auteurs of the late Soviet and post Soviet period Harmony and Dissent R. Bruce Elder,2010-04-22 R Bruce Elder argues that the authors of many of the manifestoes that announced in such lively ways the appearance of yet another artistic movement shared a common aspiration they proposed to reformulate the visual literary and performing arts so that they might take on attributes of the cinema The cinema Elder argues became in the early decades of the twentieth century a pivotal artistic force around which a remarkable variety and number of aesthetic forms took shape To demonstrate this Elder begins with a wide ranging discussion that opens up some broad topics concerning modernity s cognitive and perceptual regime with a view to establishing that a crisis within that regime engendered some peculiar and highly questionable epistemological beliefs and enthusiasms Through this discussion Elder advances the startling claim that a crisis of cognition precipitated by modernity engendered by way of response a peculiar sort of pneumatic spiritual epistemology Elder then shows that early ideas of the cinema were strongly influenced by this pneumatic epistemology and uses this conception of the cinema to explain its pivotal role in shaping two key moments in early twentieth century art the quest to bring forth a pure objectless non representational art and Russian Suprematism Constructivism and Productivism 2016 GŪnter Berghaus,2016-05-24 Volume 6 2016 is an open issue with an emphasis on Nordic countries Denmark Finland Lithuania Estonia Iceland Four essays focus on Russia two on music other contributions are concerned with Egypt USA and Korea Furthermore there are sections on Futurist archives Futurism in caricatures and Futurism in fiction Literature Redeemed Nicolas Dreyer,2020-07-13 In the post Soviet period discussions of postmodernism in Russian literature have proliferated Based on close literary analysis of representative works of fiction by three post Soviet Russian writers Vladimir Sorokin Vladimir Tuchkov and Aleksandr Khurgin this book investigates the usefulness and accuracy of the notion of postmodernism in the post Soviet context Classic Russian literature renowned for its pursuit of aesthetic moral and social values and the modernism that succeeded it have often been seen as antipodes to postmodernist principles The author wishes to dispute this polarity and proposes post Soviet neo modernism as an alternative concept Neo modernism embodies the notion that post Soviet writers have redeemed the tendency of earlier literature to seek the meaning of human existence in a transcendent realm as well as in the treasures of Russia s cultural past Voicelless Vanguard Sara Pankenier Weld,2014-06-30 Winner 2015 International Research Society in Children s Literature IRSL Book Award Voicelless Vanguard The Infantilist Aesthetic of the Russian Avant Garde offers a new approach to the Russian avant garde It argues that central writers artists and theorists of the avant garde self consciously used an infantile aesthetic as inspired by children s art language perspective and logic to accomplish the artistic renewal they were seeking in literature theory and art. It treats the influence of children's drawings on the Neo-Primitivist art of Mikhail Larionov, the role of children's language in the Cubo-Futurist poetics of Aleksei Kruchenykh, the role of the naive perspective in the Formalist theory of Viktor Shklovsky, and the place of children's logic and lore in Daniil Kharms's absurdist writings for children and adults. This interdisciplinary and cultural study not only illuminates a rich period in Russian culture but also offers implications for modernism in a wider Western context where similar principles apply.

2015 Günter Berghaus, 2015-07-01. The special issue of International Yearbook of Futurism Studies for 2015 will investigate the role of Futurism in the oeuvre of a number of Women artists and writers. These include a number of women actively supporting Futurism, e.g. Rena Ztkov, Edyth von Haynau, Olga Rozanova, Eva Khn, others periodically involved with the movement, e.g. Valentine de Saint Point, Aleksandra Ekster, Mary Swanzy, others again inspired only by certain aspects of the movement, e.g. Natalia Goncharova, Alice Bailly, Giovanna Klien. Several artists operated on the margins of a Futurist-inspired aesthetics but they felt attracted to Futurism because of its support for women artists or because of its innovative roles in the social and intellectual spheres. Most of the artists covered in Volume 5, 2015 are far from straightforward cases but exactly because of this they can offer genuinely new insights into a still largely under-researched domain of twentieth-century art and literature. Guiding questions for these investigations are: How did these women come into contact with Futurist ideas? Was it first-hand knowledge (poems, paintings, manifestos, etc.) or second-hand knowledge (usually newspaper reports or personal conversions with artists who had been in contact with Futurism)? How did the women respond to the positive or negative reports? How did this show up in their oeuvre? How did it influence their subsequent (often non-Futurist) career?

A Catalogue of Russian Avant-garde Books 1912-1934 and 1969-2003 British Library, 2006. The British Library holds an extensive collection of Russian avant-garde books of the early twentieth century and an expanding collection of Russian artists' books from the late 1960s to the present. Although all are included in the Library's catalogues, these often contain no reference to the books' designers, and many masterpieces have only recently come to light. The first edition of this catalogue provided direct access to a collection that embraces two major Russian artistic movements: futurism and constructivism. It has since become a standard reference tool for libraries, booksellers, and researchers in the identification of twentieth century Russian avant garde books With nearly 400 additional entries the second edition includes supplements of newly identified and recently acquired items in the collections together with revised author artist and title indexes It also includes a selection of black and white illustrations and English translations of titles for researchers who do not read Russian
