D. Eggen, Donald P. Kauchak, 2012 Educational Psychology Windows on Classrooms Ninth Edition will help you increase student learning and development. It is the most applied book in the field. If you're looking for a book that gives you a sound theoretical and research-based foundation and then provides specific and concrete illustrations and guidelines for applying this theory and research with your students, this is the book for you. The book uses an integrated case approach. Each chapter begins with a case study taken from actual classroom practice. But instead of stopping there, Eggen and Kauchak then weave the case throughout each chapter, extracting specific illustrations from it and in some instances even taking dialogue from the lesson to illustrate classroom applications of sometimes abstract and hard-to-understand theory and research.

Catalogue for the Year ... University of Oregon, 1967 Child and Adolescent Development for Educators Christine B. McCormick, Alysia D. Roehrig, David G. Scherer, 2025-10-16 Focusing on what educators need to know about child and adolescent development, the revised third edition of this established text incorporates timely issues and research advances. The book reviews major theories of development and presents cutting-edge knowledge about key areas: language development, intelligence and intellectual diversity, motivation, family and peer relationships, gender role development, and mental health. Factors influencing academic achievement and social-emotional growth are identified, and applications for instruction and intervention are highlighted. The text's utility is enhanced by chapter summaries, bolded key terms with definitions, and topic boxes. Instructors requesting a desk copy receive a supplemental test bank with objective test items and essay questions for each chapter. New to This Edition: Reflects key developments in cognitive science, neuroscience, genetics, and other areas; nearly 25% of the research citations are new. Expanded coverage of executive functioning, dyslexia, social-emotional learning, character education, ethnic/racial identity development, and gender diversity. Practical discussions of timely topics: social media and mental health, cyberbullying, the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic, and more.
