Developments In The European Union:

Developments in the European Union Maria Green Cowles, Desmond Dinan, 2004-10-01 Bringing together specially commissioned chapters by leading authorities and rigorously edited for coherence and accessibility this all new replacement for Developments in the European Union provides state of the art coverage of the EU as it expands and reconstitutes itself in the early twenty first century Ranging broadly across the economics social legal and political dimensions of the EU it assesses both internal changes and external relations and examines in detail key policy areas

Developments in the European Union Laura Cram, Desmond Dinan, Neill Nugent, 1999 This volume presents commissioned chapters by leading authorities edited with the aim of providing an introduction to the EU after ratification of the Amsterdam Treaty The book ranges broadly over policy areas and provides extensive coverage of the economic social and legal dimensions of the EU and its changing composition and place in the world

The Origins and Development of the European Union 1945-2008 Martin Dedman, 2010 The new edition of this accessible introduction to the history of the European Union EU has been fully revised and updated to reflect the significant changes within the EU over the past decade The book is ideal introductory reading for those new to the study of the EU who want a concise and up to date account of the political and economic development of the EU

Development Policy of the European Union Martin Holland, Mathew Doidge, 2012-02-22 Designed to replace Martin Holland s The European Union and the Third World this new text provides systematic coverage of the European Union s policies in relation to the developing world in the 21st century and includes substantial coverage of governance issues and the relationship between development initiatives and European integration

The Migration-Development Nexus in the European Union Alexandra Berger, 2025-07-04 This book researches the migration development nexus in the foreign policies of the European Union The author conceptualizes the nexus as a public policy framework situated at the intersection of home affairs and foreign affairs and studies it from the perspective of the advocacy coalition framework Amalgamating two diverse traditional EU policy fields the nexus brings together two very different kinds of policy actors Development policy actors and migration policy actors These actors have different interests and goals and represent fundamentally different policy logics therefore forming different policy communities The amalgamation of these two policy logics in the migration development nexus ultimately explains the inherent inconsistencies but also the success of the nexus as an EU public policy

The European Union and Global Development S. Gänzle, S. Grimm, D. Makhan, 2012-04-17 An assessment of the capacity of the EU to coordinate actors and policies with regards to global development The authors argue that the EU and its member states have the potential to act for global development when they are able to improve policy and actor coherence such as through better linking of bilateral and community programmes

EU development cooperation Karin Arts, Anna Dickson, Anna K. Dickson, 2018-07-30 It is increasingly recognised that EU development cooperation policy has failed to meet its stated aims In this book Arts and Dickson ask the obvious and important question if the policy doesn't work why bother with it The authors assess why EU development policy has become largely ineffective citing among the external causal factors the liberalisation of trade and the growing influence of US and international actors such as the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund upon EU policy It also considers contributing factors within the EU such as the enlargement of its membership and the resulting shifts in priorities It is this analysis of internal and external factors affecting the decline of EU development policy that makes this study both innovative and unique It brings together an impressive range of contributors from different disciplines resulting in a thorough and intelligent assessment of the debate This study will appeal to advanced level undergraduates and academics of European politics in general EU integration development studies and International Relations An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence Developments in the European Union Great Britain. Parliament House of Commons. Foreign Affairs Committee, 2009 Spatial Planning and Urban Development in the New EU Member States Uwe Altrock, Simon Güntner, 2017-03-02 Accession to the EU in May 2004 was a historic milestone for the spatial and urban development of the new member states Meanwhile the social and economic transition during the pre accession phase already brought about radical changes in national urban systems and new challenges for regional development In this edited volume a carefully selected and specially commissioned set of articles written by experts from both the new and the old EU member states presents a comprehensive assessment of emerging political and planning solutions at local regional national and EU levels Topics include brownfield redevelopment in the Czech Republic urban sprawl in Hungary the upgrading and integration of marginalized Roma settlements in Eastern Slovakia and sustainable coastal management in Cyprus Changes in the European Institutions in Regard to the Eastern Enlargement: The Distribution of Power Between Member States of Different Population Sizes Daniela Keller, 2007-09-27 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject Politics International Politics Topic European Union grade B San Diego State University Political Science course Graduate Research Seminar on the European Union 14 entries in the bibliography language English abstract A paper presented at the European Union Center of California How did the power structures of the institutions adopt to the situation of involving ten new member states which are mostly consisting of smaller populations The development of power structures in the European institutions in regard to the European enlargement are investigated in this paper A comparison of the different European institutions and their importance comes to the conclusion that overall the bigger states enlarged their power due to the European enlargement The European Union and Regional Integration in East Africa Harrison Kalunga Mwilima, 2023-08-23 This book examines European countries engagement in promoting regional integration in the East African Community EAC In addition to their usage of the European Union EU states employ other bilateral initiatives to channel their regional aid to the EAC The book explores differing national interests and the decisions to engage with the EAC both multilaterally via the EU and through their other bilateral channels In addition to analysing states interests the book goes further to examine how lack of coordination of those European initiatives creates various challenges in the EAC It is shown how EAC bureaucrats have to engage separately with the EU and its member states in their different channels thus experiencing challenges in different stages of their aid project cycles for instance in the identification implementation and reporting phases This book will be an excellent resource for researchers and practitioners focusing on the topics of European promotion of regional integration development aid African and European regional integration processes as well as foreign policy analysis

The European Union in the Asia-Pacific Weiqing Song, Jianwei Wang, 2019-02-20 Since the mid 1990s the European Union has defined the Asia Pacific as one of its key strategic targets on its ambitious road towards a global power Over the past decades big changes have taken place on both sides and the wider world It s high time to evaluate the EU s performance in its Asian policy In fact the EU is at crossroads with its Asia Pacific policy On several aspects the EU is compelled to redefine its interests and roles and rethink its strategies and policies towards the dynamic and ever important Asia Pacific region This volume addresses this theme by elaborating the general context major issues and countries in the EU s Asia Pacific policy It covers issue areas of traditional security economy and trade public diplomacy and human security and focuses on the EU s relations with China Japan the ASEAN countries and Australasia

European Union Enlargement Michael Schwarzinger, 2017 European Union Enlargement offers an intense and detailed analysis of the almost ten year process of preparing and negotiating the accession of Eastern Southeastern and Central European countries as well as Mediterranean countries to the European Union In the end ten joined in 2004 with two more to follow in 2007 European Union Enlargement was written by two diplomats who were directly involved in that process Sajdik and Schwarzinger relate their first hand experience of proceedings that occurred behind closed doors They detail how the vision of adding some countries gradually developed into the concrete policy intended to enlarge the European Union A special chapter explains the Accession Process as well as the Union s strategy that prepared the candidate countries in legal and economic terms for membership The authors describe in detail the complex negotiations that occurred from 1998 to 2002 These include activities of EU member states as well as the European Commission with respect to the candidate countries They further offer a brief analysis of future possibilities of EU accession by Balkan nations and Turkey A number of topical chapters deal with particular key issues involved in the process free movement of workers agriculture financing of the enlargement transport and nuclear safety Other chapters deal with the enclave of Kaliningrad as well as the Stability and Association Pact for South East Europe In addition to providing key information about the process this volume is also a case study of European policies and diplomatic practice The enlargement negotiations from 1998 to 2002 were the most complex ones the European Union had ever conducted In consequence this work gives insight into the working methods of both the institutions in Brussels and of the representatives of the member states that made them a success It will be of interest to those concerned with European politics international organizations and area studies Provided by publisher
