Global Population in Transition Jo. M. Martins,Fei Guo,David A. Swanson,2018-04-12 This book deals with macro and micro aspects of population change and their inter face with socio economic factors and impact It examines theoretical notions and pursues their empirical manifestations and uses multidisciplinary approaches to population change and diversity It investigates the organic nature of the relationships between socio economic factors and population change and the feedback loops that affect socio economic organisation and behaviour The book brings together material often scattered in a number of sources and disciplines that helps to understand population change and their socio economic aspects In addition to dealing with the more conventional factors in population dynamics in the form of fertility mortality and migration the book examines socio economic forces that influence them It discusses population evolving attributes that affect population characteristics and social and behaviour and impact on the environment Further it deals with social organisation and pathways that lead to different social and economic development and standards of living of diverse populations

News Around the World Pamela J. Shoemaker,Akiba A. Cohen,2012-12-06 What s news A front page news story in the United States might not appear in a newspaper in China Or a minor story on German television may be all over the airwaves in India But News Around the World shows that the underlying nature of news is much the same the world over and that people no matter what their jobs or their status in society tend to hold similar notions of newsworthiness In this richly detailed study of international news news makers and the audience the authors have undertaken exhaustive original research within two cities one major and one peripheral in each of ten countries Australia Chile China Germany India Israel Jordan Russia South Africa and the United States The nations were selected for study based on a central principle of maximizing variation in geographic locations economic and political systems languages sizes and cultures The remarkable scope of the research makes this the most comprehensive analysis of newsworthiness around the globe 10 countries studied each with a university country director 2 cities in each country examined one major and one peripheral 60 news media studied newspapers television and radio news programs resulting in 32 000 news items analyzed 80 focus groups with journalists public relations practitioners and audience members 2 400 newspaper stories ranked according to newsworthiness and compared with how prominently they were published News Around the World provides remarkable insight into how and why news stories are reported testing and improving a theory of cross cultural newsworthiness and is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand international media and journalism
