The Devil, The Angel and The Princess who went Rogue Ashok Jahagirdar,2025-10-25 Every family has its own ecosystem a delicate balance of light and shadow of spoken words and silent understandings Within this private universe roles are assigned and destinies are quietly forged There are those who build with hands worn raw from love and sacrifice And there are those who dismantle whose touch however light carries the chill of ruin This is the story of one such universe a world contained within the walls of a single home It is a fable of three souls bound by blood and fractured by design a man who became a Devil not in a single monstrous act but through a thousand small abandonments a woman who became an Angel not through ethereal grace but through a relentless earthly endurance and a daughter who was meant to be their shared legacy but instead became the final tragic battleground for their warring natures It is a tale that asks a timeless question Can the purest love when stretched taut by the constant friction of a poisonous presence truly protect its own Or does the very act of building a fortress against the dark inevitably teach the next generation to live within walls until they can no longer see the light outside This is a chronicle of how goodness can be weaponized how devotion can be twisted into a chain and how the most profound tragedy is not always a sudden crash but a slow silent suffocation of the soul Listen then to the story of the Devil the Angel and the Daughter who went Rogue and know that the darkest storms do not begin in the sky but in the quiet neglected corners of the human heart
