Faith, Hope, Love, & Deployment Heather Gray,2014-06-05 Just as Heather Gray and her deployed husband realized many military couples need more than their own imaginations to keep their marriages flourishing during deployments This is their answer to that dilemma Good Morning, Lord Wayne E. Warner,1971 Strength for Service to God and

Country Norman Eugene Nygaard,1942 The Confederate soldiers' pocket manual of devotions Ch.T. Quintard,

The Confederate Soldier's Pocket Manual of Devotions Charles Todd Quintard,2009 In the 1980s the Army Chaplain Corps adopted the credo Nurture the living Care for the wounded Honor the dead It summarizes more than 200 years of chaplain ministry with soldiers during war and peace This title presents an expression of the hope and faith on which the credo is built Prayers and Other Devotions for the Use of the Soldiers of the Army of the Confederate States

Female Bible Prayer-Book Tract Society,2018-04-14 The bedrock of the Southern American culture was that the Bible was indeed the infallible word of the God who created the heavens the earth and all that is therein and that Jesus Christ is the only means of redemption Therefore it should not be surprising to anyone that at the beginning of the War of Northern Aggression many of the political military officers and soldiers were Christians As a result they knew the great need for those going into battle to possess the Bible New Testaments tracts and hymn books especially for those who were unsaved It was simply amazing how politicians army commanders preachers churches chaplains and the people of the Confederacy immediately set into motion whatever was necessary to supply the troops with God s word This small prayer book was originally published in Charleston SC early in the War to be distributed to Confederate soldiers marching off to war or already in the field Hopefully this book played a part in bringing comfort to the men in the field as they faced the horrors of war You Were Made for This Katherine Monit,2017-10-24 Why this devotional I am just a normal military spouse and a mom to three kiddos I have never had the intention of becoming an author and I have not taken any special college level training focused in English The Holy Spirit put this devotional on my heart to write As I listened for the words He desired to say through me I could hear Him say Write this book for military wives They re searching for someone to hold them when they are scared to feed them when the paycheck runs out and to rejoice with them when no one else understands I am He their Heavenly Father and they are my chosen daughters No other women can do what they are doing When their husbands get orders from their unit I will give them peace I will give them strength to raise Godly children even when their husbands are not near If they choose to be different from the rest I will be their helpmate They are my baby girls and I want nothing more than to bless them Why 91 days of devotions My husband as a Marine had to go to basic training boot camp for 12 weeks of intense physical and mental training I believe we also need to dedicate ourselves to a similar period of mental and spiritual training to take on the critical role of being married into military life Through the experiences God has carried me through I've seen there WILL be days when we won't hear from our husbands and challenging events WILL take place. In those moments we choose to be frantic or we choose to go to God for direction. It was important to me for his devotional to be easy to read taking less than 5 minutes per day. Each day begins with a scripture and focuses on relatable life stories common among military families. I know God placed these things on my heart to help bring us to that next level of faith and empower us as a Christian military spouse.

Deployed Jocelyn Green, 2009-01-01 If your spouse or someone you know has been deployed recently the stress of this situation will resonate with you Jocelyn Green speaks directly to the wives of deployed seamen marines airmen and soldiers through the experiences of their spouses This book is not ten easy steps for a painless life instead it is a collection of devotions that squarely addresses the challenges wives face when their husbands are away protecting freedom Challenges like how does a military wife maintain a strong sense of patriotism without allowing her country to become an idol What good can possibly come from moving every two or three years How can I be sure that God has a purpose for my life that is as strong as His purpose for my husband's The foundation of this devotional is the unchanging character of God and the anchor of Jesus Christ even amidst the shifting circumstances of a military family
