Surviving Divorce Christine Tate,2024-06-26 Divorce is the dirty little secret in churches across America It is not supposed to happen in Christian marriages but the unfortunate reality is that it does happen to God s children And when it does it is traumatic in so many ways Often those hit hardest by divorce never dream it could happen to them The future is so uncertain Ideally divorce would not happen at all But wanting something does not make it a reality When divorce rages through a Christian s life it leaves a tsunami of devastation on every level from the believers themselves to their children extended family friends and even co workers Those buffeted by the storm look around bewildered by how they ended up in their situation Struggling to comprehend a new reality completing even the most basic daily task requires a monumental effort and takes on frightening new dimensions Life goes on but it will not be the same Devastated and alone there is nowhere to turn except God He alone knows your heartache and will comfort you In Him you will find the peace you so eagerly yearn to experience Amid intense confusion He will make a way for you When your future seems hopeless God makes plans for all of your tomorrows Trust in Him and He will see you through your darkest moments Even though you are walking through what is arguably the lowest point of your life God is still there with you through it all He will never leave or forsake you and desires to comfort you as you pass through this valley of testing Read each daily devotion and quietly listen to what He says to you Make time each day to cultivate an intimate relationship with Him and He will speak to your heart about the things that matter most to you God will never let you down and that is something that you can always count on Written for both men and women this 365 day devotional for divorce recovery is your yearlong guide to beginning the healing process as you deepen your relationship with God Lean on God for His strength Bask in His love for you Accept God s guidance through tough times Be comforted by His presence Deepen your faith walk Reflect and meditate on God s word for your life Each daily devotion provides words of wisdom based on scripture a short prayer and an affirmation to focus on throughout the day Inspiring and insightful this series of devotions will put you on the path to healing from the trauma divorce has brought to your life
