Dialogic Emergence Of Culture:

The Dialogic Emergence of Culture Dennis Tedlock, Bruce Mannheim, 1995 Major figures in contemporary anthropology present a dialogic critique of ethnography Moving beyond sociolinguistics and performance theory and inspired by Bakhtin and by their own field experiences the contributors revise notions of where culture actually resides This pioneering effort integrates a concern for linguistic processes with interpretive approaches to culture Culture and ethnography are located in social interaction The collection contains dialogues that trace the entire course of ethnographic interpretation from field research to publication The authors explore an anthropology that actively acknowledges the dialogical nature of its own production Chapters strike a balance between theory and practice and will also be of interest in cultural studies literary criticism linguistics and philosophy CONTRIBUTORS Deborah Tannen John Attinasi Paul Friedrich Billie Jean Isbell Allan F Burns Jane H Hill Ruth Behar Jean DeBernardi R P McDermott Henry Tylbor Alton L Becker Bruce Mannheim Dennis Tedlock

The Dialogic Emergence of Culture Dennis Tedlock, McNulty Professor in the Poetics Program and Research Professor of Anthropology Dennis Tedlock, Bruce Mannheim, Henry Tylbor, 1995 Language, Culture, Multimodality and Dialogic Emergence Lynn Mário T. Menezes de Souza, 2006 Culture & Rhetoric Ivo A. Strecker, Stephen A. Tyler, 2009 While some scholars have said that there is no such thing as culture and have urged to abandon the concept altogether the contributors to this volume overcome this impasse by understanding cultures and their representations for what they ultimately are rhetorical constructs These senior international scholars explore the complex relationships between culture and rhetoric arguing that just as rhetoric is founded in culture culture is founded in rhetoric This intersection constitutes the central theme of the first part of the book while the second is dedicated to the study of figuration as a common ground of rhetoric and anthropology The book offers a compelling range of theoretical reflections historical vistas and empirical investigations which aim to show how people talk themselves and others into particular modalities of thought and action and how rhetoric and culture in this way are co emergent It thus turns a new page in the history of academic discourse by bringing two disciplines anthropology and rhetoric together in a way that has never been done before Publisher s website

Circuits of Culture Jeffrey D. Himpele, 2008 Set against the background of Bolivia s prominent urban festival parades and the country s recent appearance on the front lines of antiglobalization movements Circuits of Culture is the first social analysis of Bolivian film and television their circulation through the social and national landscape and the emergence of the country s indigenous video movement At the heart of Jeff Himpele s examination is an ethnography of the popular television program The Open Tribunal of the People The indigenous and underrepresented majorities in La Paz have used the talk show to publicize their social problems and seek medical and legal assistance from the show s hosts and the political party they launched Himpele studies the program in order to identify the possibilities of the mass media as a site for political discourse and as a means of social action Charting as well the history of Bolivia s media culture Himpele perceptively investigates cinematic media as sites for understanding the modernization of Bolivia its social movements and the formation of indigenous identities and in doing so provides a new framework for exploring the circulation of culture as a way of creating public political movements and producing media Jeff D Himpele is associate director for the McGraw Center for Teaching and Learning at Princeton University He is an anthropologist and documentary filmmaker his films include the award winning Incidents of Travel in Chichen Itza and Taypi Kala Six Visions of Tiwanaku Tokens of Exchange Lydia H. Liu,1999 Theorizes the role of translation in the circulation of ideas and meanings in a global economy through a number of China related case studies Dialogue as a Trans-disciplinary Concept Paul Mendes-Flohr,2015-06-16 This volume of essays constitutes a critical evaluation of Martin Buber s concept of dialogue as a trans disciplinary hermeneutic method So conceived dialogue has two distinct but ultimately convergent vectors The first is directed to the subject of one s investigation one is to listen to the voice of the Other and to suspend all predetermined categories and notions that one may have of the Other dialogue is first and foremost the art of unmediated listening One must allow the voice of the Other to question one s pre established positions fortified by professional emotional intellectual and ideological commitments Dialogue is also to be conducted between various disciplinary perspectives despite the regnant tendency to academic specialization In recent decades an increasing number of scholars have come to share Buber s position to foster cross disciplinary conversation if but to garner as Max Weber argued useful questions upon which he would not so easily hit upon from his own specialized point of view Accordingly the objective of this volume is to explore the reception of Buber s philosophy of dialogue in some of the disciplines that fell within the purview of his own writings Anthropology Hasidism Religious Studies Psychology and Psychiatry Abstracts of the Annual Meeting American Anthropological Association,2001 XCP ,1997 Mayab Bejlae ,2007 Dynamics of Tradition Lotte Tarkka,2003 This volume shows the reflective nature of the study of folklore The dynamics of creating histories nations ideologies and identities are treated in various cultural arenas and historical contexts ranging from academic national and literate cultures to oral traditions The reader is invited to witness the very creation of ethnographic data in topical studies based on fieldwork From the ethnographic encounter with folk religion the focus shifts to mythological traditions and the study of mythology The section dedicated to epic studies offers a comparative view on epic poetry in various cultural settings The genre of oral or oral derived epic studies is a textual arena in which various cultural and historical agents ideologies and traditions meet in dialogue or in conflict The volume concludes with four texts inspired by Siikala s studies in the cognitive and affective processes involved in narration and system of belief Although historically and socially conditioned the dynamics of tradition is the dynamics of the human mind in all of its faculties Negotiating History and Culture Karsten Fitz,2001 Native American cultures have always succeeded to varying degrees in negotiating a balance between their tribal cultural heritage and the dominant culture In the present study the meeting between these cultures is not interpreted as a clash but as a cultural encounter in a contact zone The concept of transculturation serves as a theoretical model to analyze how history and culture are fictionally constructed in contemporary American Indian literature Developing a dynamic dialogic and reciprocal relationship between their native worldviews and literary techniques on the one hand and those of the larger society on the other the writers examined in this study Anna Lee Walters Diane Glancy James Welch Linda Hogan Thomas King and Gerald Vizenor stress the processual nature of culture These writers demonstrate that transculturation functions as a major strategy of survival for Native Americans in the past and in the present

Approaching Religion International Association for the History of Religions. Regional Conference,1999 Texas Linguistic Forum ,1997 Story Proof Kendall Haven,2007-10-30 Romantic comedy drama starring Freddie Prinze Jr and Taryn Manning When well heeled New York advertising executive Jack Prinze Jr meets struggling actress Jill Manning opposites attract and the two quickly fall in love Together they draw up a manifesto of rules to live by but things become complicated when Jill breaks the first rule on the list be honest by failing to tell Jack that she is suffering from cystic fibrosis and has only been given a couple more years to live Pro ethnologia ,2002

Creating Diversities Anna-Leena Siikala,Barbro Sklute Klein,Mathisen Stein R.,2004 The effects of globalization and the momentous changes to the political map of Europe have led to a world in which multiculturalism and ethnic differences have become issues of increasing importance In Nordic countries relationships between new immigrants local ethnic groups and majorities are created in ongoing and sometimes heated discussions In transforming multicultural societies folklore has taken on new manifestations and meanings How can folklore studies illuminate the present cultural political and historical changes Creating Diversities Folklore Religion and the Politics of Heritage seeks answers to this question It emphasizes two important factors in the cultural and political exchanges among historical minorities recent immigrants and the majority groups dictating the conditions of these exchanges The first factor is religion which is a powerful tool in the construction of ethnic selves and in the establishment of boundaries between groups The second factor is the role of national and regional folklore archives and ethnographic and cultural historical museums which create ideas and images of minorities These representations created in different political climates affect the general understanding of the people depicted Fifteen well known folklorists and ethnographers from Norway Sweden Finland Estonia and the United States offer insights and background material on these problems In addition to immigrants and ethnic minorities in the Nordic countries especially the S mi examples are sought from among the Finno Ugrian minorities in Russia and the Nordic population in North America

Bibliographie Internationale Des Recensions de la Litt Érature Savante ,1997 Imagining Serengeti Jan Bender Shetler,2007 Long before the creation of the Serengeti National Park in Tanzania the people of the western Serengeti had established settlements and interacted with the environment in ways that created a landscape we now misconstrue as natural Western Serengeti peoples imagine the environment not as a pristine wilderness but as a differentiated social landscape that embodies their history and identity Conservationist literature has ignored these now displaced peoples and relegated them to the margins of modern society Their oral traditions however provide the means for seeing the landscape from a new perspective Imagining Serengeti allows us to see the Serengeti landscape as a book of memory that preserves the ways in which western Serengeti peoples have actively transformed their environment and their societies Moreover it strengthens the case for involving local communities in conservation efforts that will preserve African environments for the future Using a new methodology to analyze precolonial oral traditions Jan Shetler identifies core spatial images which are then recontextualized into historical time periods through the use of archaeological linguistic ethnographic ecological and archival evidence Imagining Serengeti reconstructs a socioenvironmental history of landscape memory of the western Serengeti spanning the last eighteen hundred years

I Foresee My Life Suzanne Oakdale,2005 I Foresee My Life is a study of the ritual performances of the Kayabi a Brazilian indigenous people during the 1990s Kayabi rituals are distinct in that they center on the autobiographical narratives of living people Suzanne Oakdale discusses these autobiographical performances in the context of shamanic cures mortuary rites and political oratory In each ritual leaders describe how some of the dramatic environmental economic and political changes taking place in the Amazon have affected them For example the Kayabi have moved from a heavily colonized area to a reservation and as a result have had to address different facets of Indian identity new forms of commodity consumption residence patterns and leadership As they narrate their lives in these rituals leaders also give other participants ways to address some of the pressing issues in their own lives Special emphasis is given to the emotional effects of narrative performances and how these accounts move people to identify with others compel them to act in appropriate ways or assuage their grief over a lost loved one Oakdale analyzes autobiographical performances using insights from studies on ritual life history and linguistic anthropology to better understand Kayabi notions of self and person and the role these narrative expressions play in their social life Richly textured with eyewitness accounts and indigenous voices I Foresee My Life demonstrates the enduring power of indigenous performances today
