Dialogue Avec Jeanpaul I I:

Anthropological Aspects in the Christian-Muslim Dialogues of the Vatican Jutta B. Sperber, 2019-04-15 This detailed study by Jutta Sperber shows how the magisterium of the Roman Catholic Church the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue and various parts of the Muslim world from Saudi Arabia to Iran have been engaged in Christian Muslim dialogues The mainly anthropological topics range from tolerance and human dignity the position of women and children media and education to mission resources and nationalism They paint an interesting picture of the position of Man before God and the world in both Christianity and Islam The Papacy: Gaius-Proxies Philippe Levillain, John W. O'Malley, 2002 For a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample entries and more visit the Papacy An Encyclopedia website Routledge is pleased to publish this acclaimed resource in a revised expanded and updated English language edition translated by a team of experts in papal history This comprehensive three volume reference not only covers all of the popes and anti popes from St Peter to John Paul II but also explores the papacy as an institution Articles cover the inner workings both contemporary and historical of the Holy See and encompass religious orders papal encyclicals historical events papal controversies the arts and more This set is destined to be the standard English language reference for all issues concerning the papacy Also includes five maps Heirs of the Fisherman John-Peter Pham, 2004-11-30 The death of Pope John Paul II and consequent election of Pope Benedict XVI has shed light on a political process that the world has not been privy to for almost twenty six years People from around the world gathered in St Peter s Square wondering who the next Vatican leader would be and how the election process really worked while everyone from international news correspondents to local priests added their own opinions to the debate In Heirs of the Fisherman former Vatican insider John Peter Pham presents a candid portrait of the modern Vatican the only account to reveal the striking changes to papal succession procedures made by John Paul II Blending political and ecclesiastical history Pham goes beyond a mere description of the complex rituals to offer rare insight into the dramatic shifts inside the College of Cardinals whose 100 members now hail from 50 nations around the globe He takes us into the secret conclave where the electors were kept under lock and key until they had selected a new pope He also includes a chapter devoted to the intrigues of the 20th century where the first conclave had an emperor s veto and the last was won by the first non Italian in four centuries because the Italians were bitterly divided With a new Preface Afterword and appendices that include an English translation of the last will and testament of Pope John Paul II Heirs of the Fisherman is an illuminating history and must have guide to this vitally important world event It will continue to be an indispensable reference to observers of future Catholic Church politics Islamochristiana, 2000 The Thought of Pope John Paul II John M. McDermott, 1993 Language English Portrait of John Paul II André Frossard, 1990 N'ayez pas peur! André Frossard, 1982 The Popes of the Modern Ages Battista Mondin, 2004 This volume presents the history of the popes of the modern ages from Pius IX to John Paul II IT provides a description of the life of all Popes individually gives a detailed analysis of their manifold activities and magisterial doctrines and in conclusion offers an assessment of their pontificate The contribution of these Popes to the creation of a civilisation of love has been a substantial one They have not been only bulwarks but builders In this way each Pope as a helmsman of the Church the boat of Peter

Genocide in Rwanda Carol Rittner,John K. Roth,Wendy Whitworth,2004-08-23

In 1994 genocide put Rwanda on the map for most of the world It also exposed one of the most shameful scandals of the Rwandan churches the complicity of the Christian churches in the genocide Rwanda is the most Christian country in Africa More than 90% of its people are baptized Christians with the Roman Catholic and Anglican Churches having the greatest number of adherents According to Archbishop Desmond Tutu The story of Rwanda shows both sides of our humanity The churches were sometimes quite superb in what they did in the face of intimidation and at great cost to themselves But there were other times when they failed dismally and seemed to be implicated in ways that have left many disillusioned disgruntled and angry Genocide In Rwanda provides a variety of perspectives through which to assess the complex questions and issues surrounding the topic and even raise some new questions that could provide some new insight into this historical event They are questions we must ask otherwise how can the Church begin to make moral restitution change structures and behaviors and once again reveal the human face of God in our fragile world

Challenging the Modern World Samuel Gregg,1999 Samuel Gregg provides an insightful cogent and thorough analysis of the issues surrounding developments in Catholic social teaching during the pontificate of John Paul II He compares the treatment in John Paul s social encyclicals of three topics industrial relations capitalism and the relations between developed and developing countries with the handling of these matters in the social teachings of the Second Vatican Council and Paul VI Through the application of a comparative exegetical approach to the relevant texts it becomes apparent that John Paul s development of the teaching derives from several sources Within this analysis Gregg considers a more specific and less widely examined issue the extent to which the development in Catholic social thought has been influenced by the writings of Karol Wojtyla before he became pope in 1978 In addition to revealing an openness to certain modern philosophical insights and expressing a range of views about the modern world these writings elaborate a distinctive anthropology of man as the conscious subject of moral acts
