Developmental Tasks Towards A Cultural Analysis Of Human Development:

Developmental Tasks Jan J.F. ter Laak, Peter G. Heymans, Andrei I. Podol'skij, 2013-03-09 Behavioral and cognitive development is considered here as an ordered change in an individual throughout his or her lifespan and not as sets of individual differences between persons nor as stage like progressions The concept of developmental task is introduced stressing contexts within which individuals meet eliciting transitions in their behavior and by implication in the self The developmental task concept is compatible with the activity theory of Gal perin especially the concept of meaningful learning The authors show how their concept may be applied to age related crises the acquisition of a moral status the achievement of educational independence the assessment of readiness for school acquisition of peer status acquisition of concepts of morality and the task of ageing For professional psychologists and educationalists and advanced research students in the same subjects

Developing Talent Across the Lifespan Peter Heymans, Cornelis F.M. Van Leishout, 2013-05-24 This volume presents fascinating new theoretical perspectives and empirical findings on the life span development of talent It shows how talents are the result of the acquisition of a sequence of skills and how the acquisition of these skills is facilitated by changes in the individual s environment It explores to what degree the development of high intelligence or achievement is similar to the development of specific domains such as personality morality painting musical performance or professional skills It questions whether the development of talent observed for specific groups is similar to individual cases and how the different numbers of highly talented women and men in several domains are to be explained

Navigating Through Adolescence Jari-Erik Nurmi, 2001 This anthology examines Love s Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource

The International Journal of Aging & Human Development, 2003

Learning in Classrooms Mariane Hedegaard, 2001

Using Vygotsky's ideas this book contributes to the cultural historical study of school children's learning The focus is not only on activities within the classroom but on the importance of various extraneous conditions for example educational ideology that can influence both instruction and learning The comprehensive material is presented under five headings School Traditions and Learning which includes chapters covering the problem of gender and special needs education learning strategies in elementary school and ZPD in a schooling context Educational Practice that Combines Community Knowledge and Social Science Studies offers a look into dialogic research on learning about the Kobe earthquake the cultural identity of minority children a description of the way children in an inner city youth program talk and think about science and relating how the children were responsible themselves for a project involving the growing harvesting and marketing of herbs flowers and vegetables the transforming of ethnocultural traditions in a modern environment Everyday Knowledge and Mathematics and Physics Learning considers cognition in the classroom and analyses the teacher learner interactions that take place during a mathematics class with special focus on the cultural historical approach and a study of learning activity in a Japanese mathematics classroom Diversity in Learning Modes examines how students become subjects of cooperative learning activity here the strategies developed by girls seem to sustain mutual support while the traditions that characterize the learning strategies of boys do not show the same level of cooperation teacher student interaction the socio moral self concept of 12 year old Finnish children Classroom Interaction and Discourse covers the interactions between knowledge and school environment understanding classroom practice knowledge through childhood memories and different ways of organizing salient and problematic action This is an important book for teachers administrators and others who want to know more about how teachers teach and children learn

Identity and Emotion Harke Bosma, E. Saskia Kunnen, 2001 This work focuses on the individual development of identity and the processes involved By working from emotions and a dynamic systems perspective it offers a new approach to human identity and its development across the lifespan

Human Behavior in the Social Environment José B. Ashford, Craig W. LeCroy, Kathy L. Lortie, 2001 In this revision of their ground breaking book the authors offer an even more balanced integrated and applied text In addition the book's multidimensional framework integration of the biopsychosocial dimensions for assessing social functioning attention to foundation knowledge and diversity and use of case studies to illuminate the applied aspects of HBSE content all combine to give readers an experience that is meaningful and exciting Using a unique multidimensional framework for assessing behavior the authors look at biopsychosocial development across the life span Essentially the framework provides a concrete tool for the reader to assess human behavior from a perspective that truly reflects the values and knowledge base of the social work profession Lively and comprehensive this book succeeds by helping students connect foundation knowledge with practice concerns
