Christianity Series is the result of a series of Christian tracts that were written to help new believers better understand the basics of our Christian faith. The tracts were designed as a series to provide sound teaching tools to those who disciple and mentor others in the faith. Each book contains ten brief but comprehensive lessons to help believers build a strong foundation in their daily walk with their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Whether used in this book format or given to others in their original tract format, the purpose is to ground believers in the basic tenets of the doctrines and principles the God of the Bible would have His children receive trust in and rely on. All Scripture is inspired by God and is useful to teach us what is true and to make us realize what is wrong in our lives. It corrects us when we are wrong and teaches us to do what is right. 2 Timothy 3:16 NLT

Christian Theology for a Secular Society Mark G. McKim, 2008-01-01

It's hard to be the only one. That single sentence from a teenage congregant sums up the conviction that motivated Christian Theology for a Secular Society. In these dying days of Christendom, the reality that most Western Christians face is living out their faith as a minority in the midst of a culture that is at every level personal, institutional, and societal, secular in nature. While most living in Western societies still affirm belief in God and often other vaguely recognizable Christian beliefs, these affirmations frequently have little to do with how daily life is lived. The idea that the God best known to us in Jesus Christ is actually in charge of life is foreign. For most, Christianity simply does not form an overarching system of meaning that shapes life. Instead, life is lived largely without reference to God. And to live any other way is often hard. In this volume, Mark McKim sets out to do theology in this context. How does one explain the core historic Christian doctrines in a way that makes sense in a secular culture and in a way that will gain a hearing? What does it mean to be the church in this new situation? Throughout, McKim asks the question so what as he relates Christian teachings to a secular society and to what is actually happening in the local church. McKim's goal is to enable the singing of the Lord's song in the new and strange land of a secular society.
