framework for the automated assessment of IT security risks based on enterprise architecture Tim Huse,2021-09-07 Master s Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Computer Science IT Security grade 1 0 Free University of Berlin language English abstract The complexity of enterprise architectures and the associated IT security risks are constantly increasing Traditional approaches to IT risk management operate in silos and make it difficult to obtain a company wide view of existing threats The objective of this thesis is to develop an assessment framework that enables an automated comprehensive view of existing IT security risks within the enterprise architecture For this purpose concepts of IT risk management are extended with principles of enterprise architecture management Based on a research approach according to the design science research paradigm an artifact the so called Enterprise Architecture Management Risk Assessment ERA framework will be developed based on a problem analysis and requirements gathering from practice and science The ERA framework will be prototypically implemented and evaluated as a dashboard solution in a case study with a German bank The evaluation will take place in two iterations qualitative by means of expert interviews and quantitative by means of a survey The evaluation of the ERA framework artifact and its prototypical dashboard implementation confirms its usefulness usability and non triviality Furthermore possible extension and improvement possibilities of the artifact are disclosed The designed evaluation framework contributes to research at the interface of IT security and enterprise architecture management as well as to the solution of a practical relevant problem Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1983 The Comprehensive

Peace Agreement Sudan 2005 Julian Warczinski,2008-06-02 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2007 in the subject Politics Region Africa grade 1 7 Free University of Berlin Otto Suhr Institut f r Politikwissenschaft language English abstract The signing of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement CPA in Nairobi on January 9 2005 was described as a historic moment of great opportunity for the country by then United Nations Security Council President Joel Adechi of Benin The CPA received wide international approval and was praised as a promising chance to end one of Africa s longest and fierce civil wars Since the end of British colonialism in 1955 more than two million people have been killed and about the same number is said to be a realistic estimate of internally displaced persons IDPs during the course of Sudan s wars The main objective of this paper is to analyze and evaluate the current status of the peace process and the implementation of the CPA as a tool for peacebuilding in Sudan at a time where its success seems to be at serious jeopardy The central research question this paper constitutes has three main parts First the question is whether the CPA has the formal quality and extensiveness in its paperwork to effectively conduct a peace process The second part of the question is whether the implementation process is effective punctual and progressive with visible results that indicate a realistic chance for sustainable peace in the Sudan The last part discusses chances and possible reasons of a future return to armed conflict between the parties Due to the papers limits in length priority will not be put on thoroughly identifying and explaining the importance of all other armed groups OAGs involved in the conflict without failing to recognize their existence and importance The main focus will be put on the parties which signed the CPA as the official representatives of North and South the National Congress Party NCP and the Sudanese Peoples Liberation Movement Army SPLM A It will discuss and analyze the overall development of the peace process since the signing of the CPA in 2005 Central weaknesses of the CPA s implementation process are to be identified These key areas will be security instability due to the presence of OAGs issue of border demarcation the status question of Abyei oil revenue sharing and the general negative attitude towards the CPA implementation by the NCP
