this unique ethnography of urban southern Catholicism one of the few substantial studies of modern African American Catholics since the 1920s Gary W McDonogh employs a decade of anthropological and historical research to explore the contradictions and survival of black and Catholic parishes in Savannah Given the disfranchisement of African Americans in the South as well as nativist responses to Catholics among both blacks and whites those who are black and Catholic in Savannah constitute a double minority whose lives McDonogh explores by examining the interaction of community church and individual A city divided for two centuries by conflicts over culture class and race Savannah is permeated by ambiguous identities that often end up before the altar Religion thus serves as a cultural language through which urban life can be observed as well as a system of belief and identity shared by blacks and Catholics This multidisciplinary study links ethnography to wider debates on symbolism gender class and cultural power The vivid voices memories ritual and social acts and observations of Savannah provide the basis for comparative insights and theoretical generalizations on communities within the United States and on a broad range of urban and religious issues The Catholic Encyclopedia: Supplements 1 and 2 \(loose-leaf\) Charles George Herbermann,Edward Aloysius Pace,Condé Bénoist Pallen,Thomas Joseph Shahan,John Joseph Wynne,1922 Annals of Saint Joseph ,1909 Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith,1910 The Catholic Encyclopedia Charles George Herbermann,1922
