The European Environmental Conscience in EU Politics Thomas Hoerber,Gabriel Weber,2021-12-06 Based on empirical studies of European energy and environmental policies this book suggests that in combination these two policy fields form a consensus in the EU which might also become the basis for a new European ideology namely European sustainabilism It asks why an environmental conscience has grown since the late 1960s in the industrialised world and shows that whilst there is undeniable environmental degradation during this time and that a European environmental conscience has mainly developed through successive steps of European integration in energy policy In this connection between energy and the environmental we find one driver for European integration and indeed European identity If sustainabilism should become a European ideology it will substantially influence the way future Europeans will live This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of European Studies International Relations Political Science History Economics Sustainability Studies

An Anthropology of the European Union Irène Bellier,Thomas M. Wilson,2020-12-22 One of the problems facing Europe is that the building of institutional Europe and top down efforts to get Europeans to imagine their common identity do not necessarily result in political and cultural unity

Anthropologists have been slow to consider the difficulties presented by the expansion of the EU model and its implications for Europe in the 21st Century Representing a new trend in European anthropology this book examines how people adjust to their different experiences of the new Europe The role of culture religion and ideology as well as insiders social and professional practices are all shown to shed light on the cultural logic sustaining the institutions and policies of the European Union On the one hand the activities of the European institutions in Brussels illustrate how people of many different nationalities languages and cultures can live and work together On the other hand the interests of many people at the local regional and national levels are not the same as the Eurocrats Contributors explore the issues of unity and diversity in Europe building through various European institutions images and programmes and their effects on a variety of definitions of identity in such locales as France Denmark the United Kingdom Ireland and Belgium Bulletin of the European Communities ,1988 The Road to the European Union: The Czech and Slovak Republics Jacques Rupnik,2003 The Baltic states are at the doorstep of accession to the European Union In the space of just ten years Estonia Latvia and Lithuania have gone from being fragile and largely unknown ex Soviet republics to having a clear and acknowledged place in the construction of Europe What are the challenges and adjustments that the three countries have had to undergo during this momentous journey This volume profiles a range of social political and economic developments in the Baltic states during the 1990s and the early years of the twenty first century Its ten chapters tell the story of how small states struggle to establish themselves in regional and international politics how they attempt to resolve relations with former rulers how they address questions of multiethnic democracy and social integration how they build state administrations and foster democratic constitutional norms and how they reorganise economic structures and develop foreign trade It will serve as an excellent companion volume for those studying both EU enlargement and post communist transition The European Community and Human Rights Christiane Duparc,Commission of the European Communities,1993 Conclusion Towards the 21st century Memorandum on the Organization of a Régime of European Federal Union France.
