BBC Thai Phrase Book Sanya Bunnag,1996-02 Thai Phrase Book Sanya Bunnag,Rachel Harrison,1995 One of the BBC Phrase Book series designed for use by holidaymakers and business travellers This book is arranged by topic with key words and phrases a pronunciation guide and a dictionary of approximately 4000 Thai words BBC Phrase Book Sunida Bunnag,1996 BBC World Service Gordon Johnston,Emma Robertson,2019-11-14 This book is the first full length history of the BBC World Service from its interwar launch as short wave radio broadcasts for the British Empire to its twenty first century incarnation as the multi media global platform of the British Broadcasting Corporation The book provides insights into the BBC s working relationship with the Foreign Office the early years of the Empire Service and the role of the BBC during the Second World War In following the voice of the BBC through the Cold War and the contraction of the British empire the book argues that debates about the work and purposes of the World Service have always involved deliberations about the future of the UK and its place in the world In current times these debates have been shaped by the British government s commitment to leave the European Union and the centrifugal currents in British politics which in the longer term threaten the integrity of the United Kingdom Through a detailed exploration of its past the book poses questions about the World Service s possible future and argues that for the BBC the question is not only what it means to be a global broadcaster as we enter the third decade of the twenty first century but what it means to be a national broadcaster in a divided kingdom The Politics of Southeast Asia's New Media William Atkins,2013-11-19 The past decade has seen a major structural shift in broadcasting in Southeast Asia with the development of digital satellite and cable broadcasting This shift has impacted upon some of the most information sensitive governments in the world Singapore Malaysia and until recently Indonesia Atkins traces this development in five countries showing that the challenge to authoritarian regimes anticipated by modern theorists as a result of the globalization of news and information is not materializing Instead a new commercial elite has arisen Southeast Asia s own mini moguls who act as gatekeepers for state interests as partners to global media companies BBC Worldwide ,1994 BBC Handbook British Broadcasting Corporation,1979 Public Diplomacy Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee,2006-04-07 The term public diplomacy relates to activities designed to promote the image and interests of the UK overseas in support of the Government s objectives The BBC World Service and the British Council are the main government funded bodies involved in public diplomacy activity and in 2004 05 they received 225 million and 172 million of grant in aid respectively The Committee s report examines the work of these two organisations in light of the recommendations of the review by Lord Carter of Cole more details available at <http://www.fco.gov.uk/servlet/ServletFrontPage?name=OpenMarketXcelerate>ShowPageandcPageandcid1007029395249> on the effectiveness of the Government s public diplomacy work published in December 2005 The report makes 31 conclusions and recommendations including the need for the Foreign Office to support an increase in the grant in aid funding for the BBC World Service so that it can introduce other television services such as the Arabic television news service and that although it is appropriate for a Foreign Office minister to chair the new Public Diplomacy Strategy and Performance Management Board to ensure parliamentary accountability this must not be allowed to compromise the editorial independence of the BBC World Service or the operational independence of the British Council BBC Handbook ,1976
