Angela Y Davis Reader:

The Angela Y. Davis Reader Joy James, 1998-12-10 For three decades Angela Y Davis has written on liberation theory and democratic praxis Challenging the foundations of mainstream discourse her analyses of culture gender capital and race have profoundly influenced democratic theory antiracist feminism critical studies and political struggles Even for readers who primarily know her as a revolutionary of the late 1960s and early 1970s or as a political icon for militant activism she has greatly expanded the scope and range of social philosophy and political theory Expanding critical theory contemporary progressive theorists engaged in justice struggles will find their thought influenced by the liberation praxis of Angela Y Davis The Angela Y Davis Reader presents eighteen essays from her writings and interviews which have appeared in If They Come in the Morning Women Race and Class Women Culture and Politics and Black Women and the Blues as well as articles published in women's ethnic black studies and communist journals and cultural studies anthologies In four parts Prisons Repression and Resistance Marxism Anti Racism and Feminism Aesthetics and Culture and recent interviews Davis examines revolutionary politics and intellectualism Davis's discourse chronicles progressive political movements and social philosophy It is essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary political philosophy critical race theory social theory ethnic studies American studies African American studies cultural theory feminist philosophy gender studies

Contextualizing Angela Davis Joy James, 2023-12-28 Angela Davis is iconic as an international figure but few recognize the educational political and ideological contexts that formed the public persona Excavating layers of networks activists academics polemicists and funders across the ideological spectrum Joy James studies the paradigms and platforms that leveraged Angela Davis into recognition as an activist and radical intellectual Beginning in Alabama in 1944 with Davis's birthplace and ending in California in 1970 with a surrogate political family James investigates context in order to better understand the agency and identity of Davis Her chronology marks key events relevant to Davis Black communities and the US AntiBlack repression under Jim Crow Black bourgeois southern families revolutionaries elite education communist parties international travels undergrad and graduate schooling all interconnect and play a part in Davis's rise in stature from persecution as a UC graduate student to the UC Presidential chair some three decades later Set against the backdrop of 21st century US democracy and the rise of neofascists James highlights of the centrality of those considered ancillary to US liberation movements She unpacks the contradictions of iconography and revolutionary agency and shows how a triumphal figure from a symbolic era of struggle became the icon of the rare peoples victory

Prison Abolition for Realists Anna Terwiel, 2025-12-30 A lucid guide to the radical politics of prison abolitionists There is growing recognition that mass incarceration is unjust and undemocratic but prison abolition continues to be dismissed as naive idealistic and out of touch with reality Anna Terwiel challenges this view carefully examining the work of abolitionist thinkers and activists since the 1960s to argue that prison abolition is a realist political project Abolition Terwiel shows is oriented toward practical realities and offers concrete proposals for radical democratic change Based on insightful readings of renowned abolitionists such as Michel Foucault Liat Ben Moshe and Angela Y Davis Prison Abolition for Realists illuminates the realist aspects of their approaches as well as the important differences between them Distinguishing between paranoid purist and agonistic styles of abolitionism Terwiel argues that an agonistic approach holds the most promise for democratic change to carceral systems Embodied in the work of Davis agonistic abolitionism combines radical critique with efforts to build new democratic institutions while accepting that all political achievements will be imperfect Pursuing examples of what this looks like in practice Terwiel explores grassroots transformative justice efforts like those of Communities Against Rape and Abuse She also proposes a right to comfort to support incarcerated people s demands for air conditioners in extremely hot prisons showing how state institutions civil law and rights claims can be potential resources for abolitionists Nuanced and illuminating Prison Abolition for Realists affirms abolition s viability during a time of multiple ongoing crises While many despair at the state of the world Terwiel reveals how abolition offers an actionable politics of the possible Far from being unrealistic abolition is an indispensable part of a realist politics Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions Retail e book files for this title are screen reader friendly with images accompanied by short alt text and or extended descriptions

The Radical Reader Timothy Patrick McCarthy, John Campbell McMillian, 2011-05-10 Radicalism is as American as apple pie One can scarcely imagine what American society would look like without the abolitionists feminists socialists union organizers civil rights workers gay and lesbian activists and environmentalists who have fought stubbornly to breathe life into the promises of freedom and equality that lie at the heart of American democracy The first anthology of its kind The Radical Reader brings together more than 200 primary documents in a comprehensive collection of the writings of America s native radical tradition Spanning the time from the colonial period to the twenty first century the documents have been drawn from a wealth of sources speeches manifestos newspaper editorials literature pamphlets and private letters From Thomas Paine s Common Sense to Kate Millett s Sexual Politics these are the documents that sparked guided and distilled the most influential movements in American history Brief introductory essays by the editors provide a rich biographical and historical context for each selection included The Black Border and Fugitive Narration in Black American Literature

Paula von Gleich, 2022-03-07 This book tests the limits of fugitivity as a concept in recent Black feminist and Afro pessimist thought It follows the conceptual travels of confinement and flight through three major Black writing traditions in North America from the 1840s to the early 21st century Cultural analysis is the basic methodological approach and recent concepts of captivity and fugitivity in Afro pessimist and Black feminist theory form the theoretical framework

Remaindered Life Neferti X. M. Tadiar, 2022-05-02 In Remaindered Life Neferti X M Tadiar offers a new conceptual vocabulary and framework for rethinking the dynamics of a global capitalism maintained through permanent imperial war Tracking how contemporary capitalist accumulation depends on producing life times of disposability Tadiar focuses on what she terms remaindered life practices of living that exceed the distinction between life worth living and life worth expending Through this heuristic Tadiar reinterprets the global significance and genealogy of the surplus life making practices of migrant domestic and service workers refugees fleeing wars and environmental disasters criminalized communities urban slum dwellers and dispossessed Indigenous people She also examines artists and filmmakers in the Global South who render forms of various living in the midst of disposability Retelling the story of globalization from the side of those who reach beyond dominant protocols of living Tadiar demonstrates how attending to remaindered life can open up another horizon of possibility for a radical remaking of our present global mode of life

Work Won't Love You Back Sarah Jaffe, 2021-01-26 An indispensable Nation examination of why doing what you love is a recipe for exploitation creating a new tyranny of work in which we cheerily acquiesce to doing jobs that take over our lives You're told that if you do what you love you'll never work a day in your life In Work Won't Love You Back Sarah Jaffe a preeminent voice on labor inequality and social movements examines this labor of love myth the idea that certain work is not really work and therefore should be done out of passion instead of pay Told through the lives and experiences of workers in various industries Jaffe reveals how all of us have been tricked into buying into a new tyranny of work Once freed from those binds we can finally figure out what actually gives us joy pleasure and satisfaction

The African American Studies Reader Nathaniel Norment, 2001 African American Studies is a unique field of scholarly inquiry and critical interpretation whose intellectual foundation and development have significantly influenced other disciplines in the academy The African American Studies Reader is the largest and most comprehensive anthology yet undertaken in the field A variety of perspectives are used to present the development of the discipline of African American Studies This volume's sixty-one articles are organized into eight sections I The Discipline Definition and Perspectives II African American Women's Studies III Historical Perspectives IV Philosophical Perspectives V Theoretical Foundation VI Political Perspectives VII Critical Issues and Perspectives and VIII Curriculum Development and Program Models This comprehensive anthology includes key selections from many scholars who have made substantial contributions to the development of the discipline They argue many different perspectives and topics relevant to the study of African American Studies as an intellectual social and political focus in higher education they provide discussions of the intellectual and academic roots of the field they describe the conditions that made its emergence possible they present its theoretical research ideological and philosophical paradigms and they examine the past present and future challenges of African American Studies The African American Studies Reader is an invaluable complement to basic books in the discipline and can be used as an introductory text for graduate and undergraduate courses in the field It provides an essential guide to enable students to understand how the field

evolved the range of perspectives it encompasses and the challenge and future directions of African American Studies This outstanding collection of various perspectives in African American Studies will be of interest to individuals new to the field as well as those already involved in research teaching and other aspects of African American Studies Death and Other Penalties Lisa Guenther, Scott Zeman, 2015-04-01 Mass incarceration is one of the most pressing ethical and political issues of our time In this volume philosophers join activists and those incarcerated on death row to grapple with contemporary U S punishment practices and draw out critiques around questions of power identity justice and ethical responsibility This work takes shape against a backdrop of disturbing trends The United States incarcerates more of its own citizens than any other country in the world A disproportionate number of these prisoners are people of color and today a black man has a greater chance of going to prison than to college The United States is the only Western democracy to retain the death penalty even after decades of scholarship statistics and even legal decisions have depicted a deeply flawed system structured by racism and class oppression Motivated by a conviction that mass incarceration and state execution are among the most important ethical and political problems of our time the contributors to this volume come together from a diverse range of backgrounds to analyze critique and envision alternatives to the injustices of the U S prison system with recourse to deconstruction phenomenology critical race theory feminism queer theory and disability studies They engage with the hyper incarceration of people of color the incomplete abolition of slavery the exploitation of prisoners as workers and as raw material for the prison industrial complex the intensive confinement of prisoners in supermax units and the complexities of capital punishment in an age of abolition The resulting collection contributes to a growing intellectual and political resistance to the apparent inevitability of incarceration and state execution as responses to crime and to social inequalities It addresses both philosophers and activists who seek intellectual resources to contest the injustices of punishment in the United States

Black Woman's Burden N. Rousseau, 2009-09-28 Black Woman's Burden examines the historical endeavors to regulate Black female sexuality and reproduction in the United States through methods of exploitation control repression and coercion The myth of the angry Black woman has been built over generations through clever rhetoric and oppressive social policy Here Rousseau explores the continued impact of labeling and stereotyping on the development of policies that lead to the construction of national racial and gender identities for Black women The Certeau Reader Michel de Certeau, 2000

All Power to the People Jason Michael Ferreira, 2003 Encyclopedia of Women and Crime Nicole Hahn Rafter, 2000-10-24 Covers women as offenders victims criminologists criminal lawyers reformers and workers in the criminal justice system Left of Karl Marx Carole Boyce Davies, 2007 Assesses the activism writing and legacy of Claudia Jones 1915-1964 a pioneering Afro Caribbean radical intellectual active in the U S and U K Genre, 2002 Encyclopedia of African American History, 1896 to the Present: J-N, 2009 Alphabetically arranged entries from J to N that explore significant events major persons organizations and political and social movements in African American history from 1896 to the twenty first century Global Migration, Social Change, and Cultural Transformation Emory Elliott, Jasmine Payne, Patricia Ploesch, 2007-11-15 The essays in this collection work toward a larger goal of separating globalization from strictly economic considerations The authors instead look at globalization as a force that produces profound social and cultural consequences including migration struggles for social change and the transformations of aesthetic practices An Introduction to Visual Culture Nicholas Mirzoeff, 2009 This is a wide ranging and stimulating introduction to the history and theory of visual culture from painting to the television screen Mirzoeff argues that the visual is replacing the linguistic as our primary means of communicating Still Brave Stanlie Myrise James, Frances Smith Foster, Beverly Guy-Sheftall, 2009 Still Brave is a monumental book that reminds us of the centrality of Black Womanist genius and talent grounded in courage and struggle We can never understand what it means to be modern new world or African without this precious volume Cornel West author of Race Matters Cheryl Clarke Angela Davis bell hooks June Jordan Audre Lorde and Alice Walker from the pioneers of black women s studies comes Still Brave The Evolution of Black Women s Studies the definitive collection of race and gender writings today Including Alice Walker s groundbreaking elucidation of the term womanist discussions of women s rights as human rights and a piece on the Obama factor the collection speaks to the ways that feminism has evolved and how black women have confronted racism within it
