

you who are strangers to without to the altar. Gather yourselves, all of you, with humility toward one another, for "God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble." <sup>14</sup> Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, counting all your exaltation as loss because he gains for you. He who is exalted is made low. You who are lowly should exalt yourselves in the Lord, making constant requests. Rejoice in the Lord your God, knowing that the same Lord of all is being represented by you throughout the world. And what you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. To him be the dominion forever and ever, Amen. <sup>15</sup> By His stripes, a faithful brother as I regard him, I have written briefly to you, comforting and declaring that joy in the most great of God. Stand firm in it, the way is at Babylon, who is My own chosen, with you greetings, and to dear Mark, my son. Greet our mother with the love of love. <sup>16</sup> Peace to all of you who are in Christ. <sup>17</sup>
