Minangkabau and Negri Sembilan P. E. de. Josselin de Jong, 2012-12-06 As soon as one has to decide on a system of transliteration for the languages spoken in Minangkabau and Negri Sembilan one is faced by peculiar difficulties In the first place one has the choice between adopting the Dutch system the Indonesian which is derived from it the British or a scientifically satisfactory one Then should one spell the Minangkabau words according to their pronunciation or in their Malaicised form as the Minangkabau themselves do at least when writing in Arabic characters Further there is the difficulty that we do not really know what the language of Negri Sembilan is like from the scattered data one gets the impression that it should rather be considered a form of Minangkabau than a form of Malay but European writers on this State have diligently corrected the native words and expressions giving them as much as possible a Malay appearance After some hesitation we adopted the following principles of transliteration A We shall spell the Minangkabau words in accordance with their pronunciation as is customary when Minangkabau texts are published in their Romanised form B Negri Sembilan words will be given in their Malay form although there is reason to suppose that in the actual spoken language these words may differ quite considerably from the way they have been rendered here C For both the Sumatran and the Peninsular words we shall follow the official spelling of the Indonesian Republic Lippincott's Monthly Magazine ,1874 The Garden of the Soul, Etc ,1872 The Boston Cooking School Magazine of Culinary Science and Domestic Economics Janet McKenzie Hill,1907 The Journal of the Anthropological Society of Bombay Anthropological Society of Bombay,1895 The Baramahal Records ,1907 Lippincott's Magazine of Popular Literature and Science ,1874 The Hindoos as They are Sivachandra Vasu,1883 Gazetteer of the Bombay Presidency ...: Rewa Kántha, Nárúkot, Cambay, and Surat states Bombay (India : State),1880 The Delineator ,1904 The Pacific Reporter ,1913
