Brief Interventions With Bereaved Children:

Brief Interventions with Bereaved Children Barbara Monroe, Frances Kraus, 2005 The contact between a health care professional and a bereaved child can often be very brief and yet the interaction can have a profound effect on the child and on the professional themselves This book describes and illustrates the concept of brief therapeutic work with bereaved children and families Recent years have seen increasing interest in the needs of children facing bereavement and a corresponding increase in services to support them Brief Interventions with Bereaved children addresses and explains the theoretical concepts and practical implications behind the idea of brief work with bereaved children and families Flexible and accessible short term services delivered at the right time underpin the strengths of bereaved children supporting their recovery rather than pathologising the grief process The topic of this book is unique in the field and will appeal to palliative care practitioners educators and service providers managing scarce resources The book features some distinguished contributors with backgrounds in health care education social work and the police alongside theoretical and practice based chapters from workers in the field of bereavement care for children There is also a chapter from the service user s perspective

Brief Interventions with Bereaved Children Barbara Monroe, Frances Kraus, 2010 Recent years have seen increasing interest in the needs of children facing bereavement and a corresponding increase in services to support them This book addresses and explains the theoretical concepts and practical implications behind the idea of brief work with bereaved children and families Flexible and accessible short term services delivered at the right time underpin the strengths of bereaved children supporting their recovery rather than pathologising the grief process In this way the book also speaks to the current interest in the concept of resilience and working with families strengths and possibilities rather than merely identifying their problems This second edition continues to be a unique book within the growing field of childhood bereavement and the new chapters added to this edition discuss managing situations with learning disability supporting very young children and emotional literacy The book also presents cases from the service user s perspective It looks at different approaches to intervention such as the importance of assessment and the value of groupwork and also covers work with children and families before a death Brief interventions with bereaved children will appeal to practitioners educators and service providers managing scarce resources The editors have more than twenty five years experience as practitioners within the field as service providers and educators The book features chapters from distinguished contributors with backgrounds in healthcare education social work and the police alongside theoretical and practice based chapters from workers in the field of bereavement care for children

Young People's Experiences of Loss and Bereavement Jane Ribbens McCarthy, 2006-10 Everyone from health care workers to family therapists will find a treasure trove of insight into how young people deal with the deaths of loved ones This book draws together a range of research and includes narrative based case studies to compose a comprehensive overview of various theories and research and Treatment Gillian S. Mace, Faren R. Akins, Dianna L. Akins, 1981-06-30 The Bereaved Child Analysis Education and Treatment An abstracted bibliography is a comprehensive abstracted bibliography focusing on the reactions and coping mechanisms of children and adolescents to the death of parents siblings friends teachers pets or even presidents Publication dealing with both normative and pathological stages of bereavement are reviewed Materials covering childhood concepts attitudes toward death are included Citations appear which explore child death education counseling issues for parents and educators when they involve actual or anticipated death Articles are reviewed which deal with the importance of the adult role in the mourning process of the child For example decisions such as whether a child should attend a funeral or return to school are examined Publications are included which explore the short and long term developmental consequences of childhood death experience It is important to note that the topic of the dying child was excluded The Bereaved Child contains over 550 citations in author alphabetized and abstracted form Only English written books and periodicals are represented A quick glance will reveal that the bulk of the material is post 1960 This reflects the recency of interest and study in the area of childhood bereavement Literature across multiple disciplines was scanned and included Psychology medicine social work and education are heavily represented while no theological literary or popular sources were examined

The Bereaved Child Analysis, Education

Unexpected Death in Childhood Peter Sidebotham, 2007 This book explores the new guidelines and legislation in the UK that have placed further responsibilities on agencies to work together to review all child deaths and to respond appropriately to unexpected deaths in childhood It is split into three sections understanding childhood death responding when a child dies and learning lessons Part One provides essential background knowledge on the causes and patterns of childhood death drawing extensively from the most up to date scientific literature Part Two provides practitioners with the skills needed to respond to unexpected childhood deaths in a systematic yet sensitive manner Part Three covers processes needed to learn lessons from childhood deaths Various practical tools and protocols are provided as appendices which are also available on the companion website <http://www.wiley.com/go/unexpecteddeath> With many professionals finding themselves having to put procedures in place with little training or experience this handbook is essential in providing practical advice Publisher's description

Care at the Close of Life: Evidence and Experience Stephen J. McPhee, Margaret A. Winker, Michael W. Rabow, Steven Z. Pantilat, Amy J. Markowitz, 2010-12-31 The world's leading source of evidence based guidance on caring for patients at the end of life Featuring the content of the world's most widely read medical journal plus completely new never before published content Perfect for medical students trainees and clinicians alike Market Audience Medical students 18000 yr US 250 000 global NP and PA students 25 000 yr US 50 000 global IM and FP residents 30 000 US 60 000 global IM and FP clinicians 140 000 US 300 000 global Palliative medicine 3000 US Oncology 20 000 US 60 000 global Social workers About the Book In the tradition of the User's Guides to the Medical Literature and The Rational Clinical Examination JAMA Care at the Close of Life is based on a widely successful series of articles appearing over the course of the last ten years in JAMA the world's most widely read medical journal. The series is directed by Stephen McPhee, a leading authority of end of life care and the chief editor of our market leading Current Medical Diagnosis and Treatment text. The articles in the series cover fundamental topics and challenges in caring for patients who have been given a terminal diagnosis. Featuring a strong focus on evidence based medicine and organized by clinical cases, the articles are widely read by faculty, medical students and clinicians who frankly have not been given a solid educational experience on this very important medical issue. The book will be physically modeled after The Rational Clinical Examination in a full color format that highlights the clinical cases. It will be well suited for use as an required or recommended textbook for medical PA and NO students and as a clinical reference text for trainees and practicing physicians and nurses.

Key Selling Features: Based on highly regarded content from the world's most widely read medical journal. All content is completely updated and extensive new never before published content has been added. Case based and evidence based so it's a perfect fit for the way medical students and residents like to learn. Focuses on practical real world issues for primary care physicians and avoids esoteric issues of interest only to specialists in palliative care. Full color format modeled after the highly regarded Rational Clinical Examination. Includes multimedia materials available on line. Power Point slides for teaching and video interviews with patients in end of life care so that faculty and students get supplemental resources for learning the art and science of care at the end of life. Evidence based guidance from the world's leading medical journal on a critical topic that has been neglected in medical education and training until recently.

Author Profile: JAMA is the world's most widely read medical journal and has a reputation for excellence in evidence based medicine. Stephen McPhee has high visibility on account of his editorship of CMDT and for his driving role in enhancing end of life care in medical education and training programs. He is Professor of Medicine UCSF School of Medicine San Francisco CA.

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2006 Care of the Dying Child Ann Goldman, 1994. This unique book considers the specific medical, psycho-social and practical issues involved in caring for children dying from chronic diseases. Ann Goldman herself a consultant paediatrician in palliative care at the Hospital for Sick Children Great Ormond Street recognizes the special needs of terminally ill children and their families. She confronts the problems and issues surrounding the care of these children in order to help paediatricians and other professionals provide the very best possible care for such patients. A range of contributors experienced in palliative care for children provide comprehensive coverage of the subject including consideration of the magnitude of the problem and the provision of services: pain control, symptom management, family support and communication with children, spiritual issues, bereavement, stress. This practical interdisciplinary approach to the specific needs of children with terminal diseases will be invaluable for every professional who wishes to enhance standards of care for dying children and their families.

Interventions with Bereaved Children Susan C. Smith, Margaret Pennells, 1995. A comprehensive guide to the many differing approaches in tackling the issue of bereavement in children.

Music and dramatherapy in formal and informal settings and the outcomes of the contrasting interactive theories are also examined Marshaling Social Support Benjamin H. Gottlieb,1988 The challenge of creating conditions conducive to the expression of solidarity support and personal change are specifically considered in this volume which illuminates critical issues in the mobilization of social support and the planning of interventions The contributors address many of the issues raised by existing guidelines for designing interventions the emphasis is on empirical work and the volume will be of interest to both practitioners and academics in a variety of social service fields A Study of the Effectiveness of a Camp Intervention for Bereaved Adolescents Martin John Loy,1999 Children's Needs III George G. Child Psychiatry Philip Jeremy Graham, Frank C. Verhulst, Dr. Jeremy Turk,1999 For the third edition of this comprehensive textbook of child and adolescent psychiatry Philip Graham is joined by two co authors Jeremy Turk and Frank Verhulst Their shared experience and expertise covers all aspects of developmental psychology behaviour and emotional disorders and types of therapy As in the two previous editions there is special emphasis on developmental considerations and on ways in which physical health and psychological problems interact This new edition contains additional sections on adolescence The book will provide necessary and useful information for all professional dealing with disturbed children and their families Nursing Times, Nursing Mirror ,2005 Parent-Child Separation Faren R. Akins,Dianna L. Akins,Gillian S. Mace,1981-06-30 Parent Child Separation Psychosocial Effects on Development is an abstracted bibliography dealing with the consequences of parental separation and deprivation on the developing child and adolescent We were interested in investigating the literature pertaining to the absence of a parent for reasons other than parental death Main topics included were maternal or paternal absence due to desertion military duty imprisonment parental institutionalization and divorce Restricted parenting articles were included when they dealt with maternal or paternal inattention rather than physical abuse Particular problems with being a single parent were viewed from the perspective of child development Because of the wealth of literature available in this area it became necessary to exclude topics such as laboratory studies dealing with temporary separation normative attachment studies effects of maternal employment child abuse child institutionalization and the like Other related topics will be the subject of forthcoming books These include the effect of parental death on the child and problems of childhood hospitalization In Parent Child Separation each of the 690 main references have abstracts which were derived from three main sources Psychological Abstracts author supplied abstracts and those written by the authors of this book In compiling this book it became necessary because of size limitations to focus on articles published after 1960 However several pre 1960 articles and books were important from a historical perspective and are included in a separate section marked Historical References These represent important earlier contributions to this vast subject area
