BOOK JACKET

Jean Cras, Polymath of Music and Letters Paul-André Bempéchat, 2009 Jean Cras (1879-1932) was a remarkable man by anyone's measure. Twice a decorated hero of the Great War, this Rear Admiral of the French navy, scientist, inventor, moral philosopher, and war hero was also a highly esteemed composer during his lifetime, enjoying the same stature and level of recognition as Fauré, Debussy, and Ravel. Since his death, however, both Cras and his music have been almost completely overlooked. In this, the first critical biography of Cras, Paul-André Bempéchat situates the composer as a missing link between the French post-romantic generation of composers and the impressionists.

Art, Cultural Heritage, and the Law Patty Gerstenblith, 2008 Art, Cultural Heritage, and the Law is one of the first legal casebooks to address the rapidly emerging fields of art and cultural heritage law, utilizing an interdisciplinary approach. This book addresses artists' rights, freedom of expression, copyright, moral rights, and rights in architectural works and historic preservation; the functioning of the art market, dealers, and auction houses; warranties of quality and authenticity; transfer of title and recovery of stolen art works; and the role of museums and, finally, cultural heritage: the fate of art works and cultural objects in time of war; the international trade in art works and cultural objects; the archaeological and underwater heritage of the United States and indigenous cultures, focusing on restitution of Native American cultural objects and human remains and appropriation of indigenous culture. The new edition, available summer 2008, will retain the basic structure of the first edition while updating case law, policies, and events. It will include recent materials and developments such as new cases: Malevich v City of Amsterdam, resolution of the Barnes dispute, recent deaccessioning disputes, Iran v Barakat, U.S. v Ligon, recent restitutions of ancient art works from US museums to Italy and other countries, and new museum policies. There will also be an expansion of treatment of underwater cultural heritage, historic preservation, and archaeological resources.
