William James

Clear For Action:

The French Prize James L. Nelson, 2015-07-14 Acclaimed award winning author James L Nelson praised as a master of both his period and the English language by Patrick O Brian returns to the world of sea and sail in this page turning historical novel Jack Biddlecomb has much to live up to being as he is the eldest son of the esteemed Captain Isaac Biddlecomb wealthy merchant captain leading light of the War for American Independence and newly minted congressman Jack finds himself off to a promising start however when he is given command of the merchant vessel Abigail bound from Philadelphia for Barbados But even before the docklines are cast off the voyage which should have been routine begins to look like a stormy passage indeed Jack is saddled with two passengers one as unpleasant as he is highborn the other a confidant of the Abigail's owner who cannot help but meddle in the running of the ship What's more with the French making prizes of American merchantmen Abigail's owner has armed the ship and instructed Jack to fight if need be thrusting the first time captain and his small crew into a naval war for which they are totally unprepared What Jack does not know but soon begins to suspect is that he is being used as part of a bigger plot one that will have repercussions on an international scale

An improved system of telegraphic communications. (Continuation of the general vocabulary. Supplementary vocabulary.). Thomas LYNN, 1814 Educating for Action Jason Del Gandio, Anthony J. Nocella, 2014-09-01 An inspiring instructional handbook for transforming idealism into social change The pursuit of freedom and justice is a timeless one but new activists may not know where to begin while more experienced ones often become jaded or fatigued The task of constructing a new society free from oppression and inequality can be overwhelming Tools for facilitating motivation engagement and communication can mean the difference between failure and success for activists and social movements Educating for Action collects the voices of activists whose combined experience in confronting injustice has generated a wealth of key insights for creating social change This practical guide explores such topics as Community activism and direct democracy Conflict negotiation communication and rhetoric Law the educational system and lifestyle activism Social media skills conference planning and online organizing Written in an inspirational tone Educating for Action consciously straddles the line between street activism and classroom instruction Bridging the gap between these two worlds makes for an engaging and instructive manual for social justice helping students teachers and larger activist communities turn their idealism into action Jason Del Gandio is a scholar activist and assistant professor of rhetoric and public advocacy at Temple University He is the author of Rhetoric for Radicals A Handbook for 21st Century Activists Anthony J Nocella II is a scholar activist and senior fellow of the Dispute Resolution Institute at the Hamline Law School He is a long time anti racism youth justice prison abolition hip hop animal disability and Earth liberation activist and has published over fifty scholarly articles and book chapters and sixteen books A History of the United States Navy, from 1775 to 1898 Edgar Stanton Maclay, 1898 Constitution and Guerriere , 1812 The International Encyclopaedic Dictionary ... , 1901 Revised
