Management for Lawyers Alexander Y. Benikov,2014-03-23 Client Management may be the single hardest part of being a lawyer Talk to any attorney and they will tell you this is true Law schools do not spend enough time teaching students how to manage clients The difference between having a happy legal career and a miserable one can come down to how a lawyer deals with their clients I believe that any lawyer or law student who reads Client Management For Lawyers will find it useful and beneficial Alex Benikov has penned a critical work the importance of client management cannot be understated for the modern legal practitioner Criminal defense lawyer John McBeeI am very fortunate to have met Alex Benikov as a professor at Arizona Summit Law School and to have the chance to read his latest book on client management Unlike Professor Benikov s law school experience our school did offer a Client Management course However this course was more based on setting up a law office and a partnership than the more practical areas that attorneys will overlook until trouble happens Alex Benikov s newest book Client Management for Lawyers is a book I would recommend for anyone in the legal community this book shares information on a level that anyone would be able to comprehend and follow The best part of reading Client Management for Lawyers is the fact I have personally witnessed Alex Benikov live by these words and how well he interacts with clients I highly recommend this book for any attorney who will deal with clients in the practice of law Civil and criminal defense lawyer Frank Schreiber I wholeheartedly recommend this book to law students Law school does not prepare you for how challenging many clients can be Lawyers need to know how to handle difficult issues involving client management Mr Benikov s book will help readers start thinking about how they would deal with such clients Civil and criminal lawyer Karen RichmanAs a practicing attorney I have learned that there are few areas more difficult to master than client management Clients are often intimidated when meeting with an attorney Mr Benikov s book lays out very effective methods of interacting with clients Whether its tips for making clients feel more at ease or methods of taking control of certain situations there are great approaches in the book I would recommend the book to all law students who are serious about becoming good attorneys Civil lawyer Geoff MalicoatThis book should have been written a long time ago Law schools do not spend enough time teaching students how to deal with clients This books shows practical down to earth approaches that every attorney can use There is no way to make client management easy but this book will point attorneys in the right direction Civil lawyer H L Haines Marketing the Law Firm Sally J.
