Social Theory, Psychoanalysis and Racism Simon Clarke,2017-03-04 Sociological explanations of racism tend to concentrate on the structures and dynamics of modern life that facilitate discrimination and hierarchies of inequality In doing so they often fail to address why racial hatred arises as opposed to how it arises as well as to explain why it can be so visceral and explosive in character Bringing together sociological perspectives with psychoanalytic concepts and tools this text offers a clear accessible and thought provoking synthesis of varieties of theory with the aim of clarifying the complex character of racism discrimination and social exclusion in the contemporary world Childhood Depression Gillian Miles,2018-04-17

This title is based on the results of a project based at the Tavistock Clinic in London which set out to explore whether children and young people aged nine years to fifteen years suffering from depression could be helped using brief focused psychodynamic psychotherapy together with parent work and family therapy There were also centres in Athens Greece and Helsinki Finland and in this way the clinicians had sufficient subjects from which to compare the interventions and check for any possible cultural differences in the results Most of the children and young people studied showed a noticeable improvement The book contains chapters by the clinicians involved describing their work as well as a section containing the scientific papers that emerged from the project It is hoped that this may encourage the use of similar approaches to working in the field especially in these days when there is such a demand for psychological therapies Couple Stories Aleksandra Novakovic,Marguerite Reid,2018-03-15 This book presents the application of key psychoanalytic concepts in thinking about the dynamics in the couple relationship The contributions to the first part mainly theory discuss how different psychoanalytic ideas can be used in conceptualizing the nature of couple interaction In the second part on clinical practice four couples tell their stories during their clinical sessions Couple Stories conveys a lively experience of the couple s relationships as these occur in the consulting room and there are several commentaries for each couple story Commentaries explore the concepts described in the earlier part of the book as well as clinical themes that couples bring to their sessions and the difficulties that they have encountered in the course of their relationship Commentaries also provide an insight into how psychoanalytic couple therapists think about the clinical material what they might select as a focus and how they may go about developing a hypothesis about the nature of the relationship between the partners Optometric Weekly ,1924 Annual Report of the Directors of the New York Post-Graduate Hospital New York Post-Graduate Medical School,1928 The Clinical Paradigms of Melanie Klein and Donald Winnicott Jan Abram,R.D. Hinshelwood,2018-03-15 The Clinical Paradigms of Melanie Klein and Donald Winnicott seeks to introduce the distinctive psychoanalytic basic principles of both Klein and Winnicott to compare and contrast the way in which their concepts evolved and to show how their different approaches contribute to distinctive psychoanalytic paradigms The aim is twofold to introduce and to prompt research The book consists of five main parts each with two chapters one each by Abram and Hinshelwood that describes the views of Klein and of Winnicott on 5 chosen issues Basic principles Early psychic development The role of the external object The psychoanalytic concept of psychic pain Conclusions on divergences and convergences Each of the 5 parts will conclude with a dialogue between the authors on the topic of the chapter The Clinical Paradigms of Melanie Klein and Donald Winnicott will appeal to who are being introduced to psychoanalytic ideas and especially to both these two schools of British Object Relations The Optical Journal and Review of Optometry ,1924 NASW Register of Clinical Social Workers National Association of Social Workers,1978 Free Associations ,1993 Clinical diagnosis Ritter Rudolf Jaksch von Wartenhorst,1897
