!Click Song John A. Williams,2016-02-02 In this fiercely authentic tale from the author of The Man Who Cried I Am a gifted novelist confronts the powerfully entrenched profit motivated forces of corporate racism When his military service ends at the close of World War II a period that will continue to haunt him throughout his life Cato Douglass resolves to pursue a writing career and follows his dream to New York City Soon his first novel is published and it appears his dream has been fulfilled enabling him to travel the world fall in love marry and start a family But despite possessing a talent that shines brighter than that of many of his literary contemporaries Cato discovers that he is trapped within a racist system Only a handful of black writers receive the support of white editors and critics and because Cato s work pushes the boundaries set by the publishing industry he is doomed to a life of obscurity The Chicago Sun Times proclaimed Click Song a major novel by one of America s finest living writers Winner of the 1983 American Book Award John A Williams s enthralling chronicle of a writer s lifelong struggle to matter is a blistering tale of art industry family and race Song Life Shilo Shaffer Myers,1890

The Vineyard of Song Chester G. Allen,Theodore Frelinghuysen Seward,1875 An Introduction to African Languages G. Tucker Childs,2003-12-19 This book introduces beginning students and non specialists to the diversity and richness of African languages In addition to providing a solid background to the study of African languages the book presents linguistic phenomena not found in European languages A goal of this book is to stimulate interest in African languages and address the question What makes African languages so fascinating The orientation adopted throughout the book is a descriptive one which seeks to characterize African languages in a relatively succinct and neutral manner and to make the facts accessible to a wide variety of readers The author s lengthy acquaintance with the continent and field experiences in western eastern and southern Africa allow for both a broad perspective and considerable depth in selected areas The original examples are often the author s own but also come from other sources and languages not often referenced in the literature This text also includes a set of sound files illustrating the phenomena under discussion be they the clicks of Khoisan talking drums or the ideophones words like English lickety split found almost everywhere which will make this book a valuable resource for teacher and student alike Editor & Publisher ,1926 The fourth estate Song and Drill Book ,1905 Young People's Song Book Charles Edward Whiting,1892 The Coronation Theodore Frelinghuysen Seward,Chester G. Whispering the Techniques of Language: An Emotional Quest through Click Song

In a digitally-driven world where screens reign great and immediate communication drowns out the subtleties of language, the profound techniques and psychological subtleties hidden within phrases usually get unheard. Yet, set within the pages of Click Song a charming fictional treasure pulsing with organic emotions, lies an exceptional journey waiting to be undertaken. Composed by a skilled wordsmith, this charming opus invites readers on an introspective trip, delicately unraveling the veiled truths and profound influence resonating within the very material of each word. Within the emotional depths of this emotional review, we can embark upon a genuine exploration of the book's key subjects, dissect their fascinating publishing type, and yield to the effective resonance it evokes strong within the recesses of readers' hearts.
