Bible Study Source New Testament:

Biblical Studies on the Internet Roland H. Worth, Jr., 2008-09-18 The new edition includes more than 4 800 resources available at more than 10 000 Internet sites that provide information on a range of biblical study topics including Bible translations in English and other languages audio translations of the Bible in English and other languages commentaries dictionaries and other resource materials including ones in Greek Hebrew and other ancient languages The author also has adopted a new method of referencing and cataloging the most widely used web pages to facilitate a major expansion of resources without increasing the physical length of the book itself In cases when ten or more resources are listed on a single web page the author has assigned the web page a three digit code The code is used to identify this web page as a major resource within the main text while any needed instructions for use of the site are cross referenced separately in the final chapter In adopting this concise method the author was able to add hundreds of additional or updated web resources a surprising number of which can be downloaded onto a hard drive for immediate and continued use

Narrative Obtrusion in the Hebrew Bible Christopher T. Paris, 2014-07-01 Narrators of the Hebrew Bible generally allow their stories to proceed while relying on characters and dialogue to provide necessary information Paris calls attention to when the story teller breaks frame to provide information or direct reader understanding preventing undesirable construals or interpretations of the story After surveying the phenomenon in the Hebrew Bible and other ancient Near Eastern literature Paris focuses on the Deuteronomistic History Paris argues that attention to narrative obtrusion offers an entry point into the world of the narrator and redefines aspects of narrative criticism

A Guide to Biblical Study Arthur Samuel Peake, 1897 Synoptic Composition Adam J. Christian, 2023-09-01 The fascination with literary dependency in the most popular approaches to the synoptic problem has been built upon a faulty presupposition that oral tradition is incapable of producing the word for word verbal agreement found in the synoptic accounts Recent research in the area of oral tradition has shown that this is not the case but we still rely on increasingly complicated literary models to explain the relationships between the Synoptic Gospels This book engages in comparative analysis of Old Greek quotations found in more than one of the Synoptic Gospels along with the material that surrounds these quotations The resulting conclusions indicate that oral sources may better explain the similarities and differences found in the Synoptic Gospels and that we ought to reexamine our foundational presuppositions in order to craft a better model for understanding the origins of the Synoptic Gospels The hope is that the reader will join the author in seeking to better understand these books that include the climax of the greatest story of all time the true story of people marred by sin and their creator who seeks after them as he redeems all things to himself Catalogue of the General Theological Library, Boston, Massachusetts General Theological Library,1913

Hebrews, the General Letters, and Revelation Charles B. Puskas,2016-10-28 Most New Testament NT introductions because of page limitations and other reasons tend to minimize their treatment of the last nine books of the Christian Bible from Hebrews to Revelation The focus in these introductions is often on the four Gospels and the Letters of Paul As important as these books are one should not neglect with only a brief survey the treatment of Hebrews the General Letters and the book of Revelation The title given later to the collection Catholic Epistles or General Letters is a reminder of its general appeal to the whole church despite its slow canonical recognition and authorship issues Nevertheless these writings from Hebrews to Revelation continue to capture our attention and ignite our imagination My purpose for this book is to supplement my NT introduction and others like it with a focus on specific questions about each book from Hebrews to Revelation When and why was each book written By whom and to whom was each book written What are some special features of each book How soon or late was each book included in the NT collection Answers to many of these questions are tentative The assured results of scholarship are in continual need of reevaluation Since the 1980s a host of diverse studies have emerged and I have endeavored to include them when they are relevant to the discussion Not by Paul Alone David R. Nienhuis,2007 Introduction A canonical history of the New Testament Catholic epistle collection Early James traditions and the canonical letter of James Reading James as a canon conscious pseudepigraph Conclusion Religious Education ,1910 Available on microfilm from University Microfilms A Source Book for the Study of the Teaching of Jesus in Its Historical Relationships Ernest DeWitt Burton,1924 The American Catalog ,1896 Chicago Seminary Quarterly Chicago Theological Seminary,1901 The Gospel of the Kingdom ,1916 General Introduction to the Study of Holy Scripture Charles Augustus Briggs,1899
