Aging, Society, and the Life Course, Fourth Edition Leslie A. Morgan, Suzanne Kunkel, 2011-03-15 Doody's Score 91
4 Stars This book's unfading preoccupation with social context social processes and social structures distinguishes itself and greatly contributes to the discourse in gerontology The Gerontologist This is a comprehensive textbook for both undergraduate and graduate level courses detailing the impact of societal forces on the aging process The book focuses on the diversity of the older population examining it from micro macro perspectives in order to understand aging and the life course as social phenomena This latest edition examines significant changes in the field of social gerontology such as the paradigms of aging and the life course the baby boomer cohorts as they approach retirement and later life the growing interest in global aging and civic engagement This text encourages students to examine aging from personal familial community societal and global perspectives including both the positive and negative realities of aging Key Features Provides websites of interest at the end of each chapter Presents provocative essays on love sex music medicine and crime to further expand on chapter contents Provides review questions and key terms as study guides at the end of each chapter

Aging Well George E. Vaillant, 2008-12-12 An outstanding contribution to the study of aging from a psychiatrist and professor at Harvard Medical School Publishers Weekly In an unprecedented series of studies Harvard Medical School has followed 824 subjects men and women some rich some poor from their teens to old age Harvard's George Vaillant now uses these studies the most complete ever done anywhere in the world and the subjects individual histories to illustrate the factors involved in reaching a happy healthy old age He explains precisely why some people turn out to be more resilient than others the complicated effects of marriage and divorce negative personality changes and how to live a more fulfilling satisfying and rewarding life in the later years He shows why a person's background has less to do with their eventual happiness than the specific lifestyle choices they make And he offers step by step advice about how each of us can change our lifestyles and age successfully Sure to be debated on talk shows and in living rooms Vaillant's definitive and inspiring book is the new classic account of how we live and how we can live better It will receive massive media attention and with good reason we have never seen anything like it and what it has to tell us will make all the difference in the world A respected researcher offers suggestions for successful and happy aging Highly recommended Library Journal Astonishing observations Aging Well provides the only available longitudinal assessment of the factors that will permit us to age well New England Journal of Medicine Perceptive understanding and often tinged with delightful humor Booklist

The Wonder of Aging Michael Gurian, 2013-06-18 Bestselling author and renowned family counselor Michael Gurian teaches you how to embrace aging and life after fifty through this spiritual and comprehensive guide The topic of aging after fifty is frequently only discussed in terms of health what are the physical symptoms that come with advanced age and what can we do about them The Wonder of Aging however aims to look at aging in a new way as something that is positive showing how miraculous our second half of life can be Gurian divides life after fifty into four stages Stage 1 The Age of Transformation This is the stage of life from the late forties to approximately sixty Stage 2 The Age of Distinction This stage of life lasts from approximately sixty to seventy five Stage 3 The Age of Completion This stage involves completing our life journey both together if we are still coupled and alone if our spouse has passed on or if we are divorced He developed these stages in response to both scientific and anthropological information and in response to the needs of his clients who sought help in understanding where they were and what to expect in the second half of life With updated research and anecdotes to help you discover a new paradigm for aging you can understand how aging affects you physically mentally relationally and spiritually and how to celebrate these changes holistically and healthfully

Aging and Life-Prolonging Processes V.V. Frolkis,2012-12-06 There is an Inca incantation which stated said roughly Lord give me spiritual peace so that I can acquiesce to what I cannot change give me courage so that I can change what I can change and give me wisdom so that I can distinguish one from the other Obviously this incantation can be regularly repeated by any gerontologist since it is very difficult to distinguish aging from the processes which enhance the organism s viability aging from diseases and the mechanisms of aging in various species of animals According to N Shock who compiled a valuable bibliography of the works on aging more than 43 000 works on gerontology have been published in the last decade Why do we continue to disagree with one another and hold that the most important mechanisms are still largely unknown to us in spite of that flow of information and an enormous number of facts What is it that we do not know Could it be that we do not know the sole sacramental fact which can explain everything such as the hormone of aging the programmed triggering of a suicide gene the appearance of a special toxic agent in the axoplasmic flow of substances and so forth Goethe once wrote that a scientist most often holds certain parts but unfortunately he lacks their sacred link

Trained Men. ..., 1928 The Bulletin, 1903 Chemical & Metallurgical Engineering Eugene Franz Roeber, Howard Coon Parmelee, 1921 Old Age, the Major Involution Aldred Scott Warthin, 1929 Cruising through Caregiving Jennifer L. FitzPatrick, 2016-09-27 Fact most of us will end up in the role of caregiver whether we ve planned for it or not This generous book carefully guides caregivers in how to be loving and responsible without being overcome by stress in the process. Cruising through Caregiving is the strong and friendly companion that anyone navigating the unpredictable waters of caregiving will find absolutely indispensable. Jennifer FitzPatrick uses easy-to-understand nautical imagery to give solid and friendly practical support and information to caregivers no matter what phase or scenario of caregiving they may be experiencing. FitzPatrick ably instructs caregivers on how to recognize and harness the power they have such as getting other family members to participate so they will experience less stress and give their older loved one a better quality of life while most importantly not giving up their own lives. FitzPatrick reassures caregivers that they don't just have to let things happen to them and that there is always a solution for a negative situation. Regardless of whether or not readers have advantages such as money or extended families, Cruising through Caregiving will show them how to preserve their health, their finances, their careers, their relationships with families and friends, and how to make smooth sailing out of their caregiving experience.

Ageing and Later Life Julia Johnson, Robert Slater, 1993. Ageing and Later Life reflects the diverse nature of the subject by taking a multidisciplinary approach including literary, historical, sociological, policy, psychological, philosophical, and clinical perspectives. This lively and informative book features essays by major authors in the field and includes discussions of cultural aspects of self-image and identity, current concerns relating to health and well-being, the reality of power and control in the care of older people, concepts and values which shape our understanding of ageing, issues of policy and politics, and historical perspectives on ageing and possibilities for the future. Ageing and Later Life is a set book for The Open University course K256.
