Agroecology & Small Farm Dev Susanna B. Hecht, 1990-06-11 The physical and social context of small farm agriculture Small farm development approaches Production systems The dynamics of traditional agriculture case studies Sustainable Or Alternative Agriculture Jayne T. MacLean, 1991 From the Ground Up Helena Norberg-Hodge, Peter Goering, John Page, 2001-02 Modern industrial agriculture is in crisis The dream of global abundance promised by chemical and biological technology is becoming a nightmare of health risks degraded land and ailing communities There is mounting public distrust of conventional agricultural practices From the Ground Up explores the fundamental principles which underlie the growth at any cost thinking of modern society and highlights some of the most promising alternative ways of producing environmentally healthy food Reluctant Partners? Non-Governmental Organizations, the State and Sustainable Agricultural Development Anthony Bebbington, John Farrington, David J. Lewis, Kate Wellard, 2005-07-15 Reluctant Partners combines comprehensive empirical insights into NGOs work in agriculture with wider considerations of their relations with the State and their contribution to democratic pluralism This overview volume for the Non Governmental Organizations series contextualizes and synthesizes the case study material in the three regional volumes on Africa Asia and Latin America where over sixty specially commissioned case studies of farmer participatory approaches to agricultural innovation are presented Specific questions are raised How good bad are NGOs at promoting technological innovation and addressing constraints to change in peasant culture How effective are NGOs at strengthening local organizations How do will donor pressures influence NGOs and their links to the State Routledge Handbook of Food as a Commons Jose Luis Vivero-Pol, Tomaso Ferrando, Olivier De Schutter, Ugo Mattei, 2018-12-17 From the scientific and industrial revolution to the present day food an essential element of life has been progressively transformed into a private transnational mono dimensional commodity of mass consumption for a global market But over the last decade there has been an increased recognition that this can be challenged and reconceptualized if food is regarded and enacted as a commons This Handbook provides the first comprehensive review and synthesis of knowledge and new thinking on how food and food systems can be thought interpreted and practiced around the old new paradigms of commons and commoning The overall aim is to investigate the multiple constraints that occur within and sustain the dominant food and nutrition regime and to explore how it can change when different elements of the current food systems are explored and re imagined from a commons perspective Chapters do not define the notion of commons but engage with different schools of thought the economic approach based on rivalry and excludability the political approach recognizing the plurality of social constructions and incorporating epistemologies from the South the legal approach that describes three types of proprietary regimes private public and collective and different layers of entitlement bundles of rights and the radical activist approach that considers the commons as the most subversive coherent and history rooted alternative to the dominant neoliberal narrative These schools have different and rather diverging epistemologies vocabularies ideological stances and policy proposals to deal with the construction of food systems their governance the distributive implications and the socio ecological impact on Nature and Society The book sparks the debate on food as a commons between and within disciplines with particular attention to spaces of resistance food sovereignty de growth open knowledge transition town occupations bottom up social innovations and organizational scales local food national policies South South collaborations international governance and multi national agreements Overall it shows the consequences of a shift to the alternative paradigm of food as a commons in terms of food the planet and living beings

Rural and Farming Systems Analysis John Barry Dent,Murray J McGregor,1994 The Farming Systems Research and Extension approach adopts a multidimensional perspective and has been widely used to bring about rural change in many developing countries The approach has traditionally been less used in Europe where research has tended to concentrate on increasing production. However, with the current emphasis within the European Union on restricting surpluses and on environmental and social protection, circumstances are more appropriate to the farming systems approach. Changes to rural infrastructures and agricultural production in Central and Eastern Europe may also favor the approach. This book is the first to define the issues of farming systems research as they might be applied within a European context and extended to rural systems as a whole. Consisting of 27 chapters, it is divided into five parts covering conceptual background, contextual setting, alternative production systems, understanding farm households and systems, and methodologies. Contributions are included from the UK, Ireland, France, Germany, Spain, Portugal, Denmark, Netherlands, Finland, Estonia, and Greece. The book is aimed at a wide range of readers in agricultural economics and rural studies.

Reid, 1992    Weed Management by Traditional Farmers Erika Schreder, 1995    Sustainable Farming Innovations in Cuba Melissa Pellicier Ortiz, 2002    The Roots of Change Brent Meriwether Simpson, 1999

Focusing attention on human creativity and social interaction and building on the view that these innate human characteristics are central forces in the evolution of local agricultural systems, this volume explores the patterns of farmers' individual and joint behaviour in the generation, adaptation, and spread of new agricultural practices.
