American Poetry Next Generation:

American Poetry Gerald Costanzo, Jim Daniels, 2000 Gerald Costanzo's most recent books are Nobody Lives on Arthur Godfrey Boulevard and The Devins Award Poetry Anthology. He has taught in the English Department at Carnegie Mellon for thirty years. Jim Daniels is director of the Creative Writing Program at Carnegie Mellon. His books of poems include Blessing the House and Blue Jesus. His collection of stories No Pets was published in 1999. This anthology is a compilation of the work of more than 170 poets under the age of forty who have already published at least one book with a trade university or independent publisher. In an era of National Poetry Month and of the Favorite Poem Project it's probably not an original notion to set out to edit an anthology of younger poets. But in fact it has been 25 years since poets in the under forty age group have been comprehensively anthologized.

Asian American Poetry Victoria Chang, 2004 This exciting anthology of work by up and coming writers is the first to profile a new generation of Asian American poets. Building on the legacy of now canonized poets such as Li Young Lee, Cathy Song, and Garrett Hongo who were the first to achieve widespread recognition in the American literary community, this new generation also strikes off in bold new directions. Asian American Poetry: The Next Generation gathers for the first time a broad cross section of the very best work of these young poets, all under the age of forty, including Timothy Liu, Adrienne Su, Sue Kwock, Kim Rick Barot, Brenda Shaughnessy, Mong Lan, as well as less familiar names. A foreword by Marilyn Chin puts the book in context of both Asian American national identity and history and makes the important distinctions between generations clear. Asian American Poetry: The Next Generation opens the door on a dynamic, developing part of the poetic world, making it finally accessible to students, scholars, and poetry fans alike.

Twentieth-Century American Poetry Christopher MacGowan, 2008-04-15 Written by a leading authority on William Carlos Williams, this book provides a wide-ranging and stimulating guide to twentieth-century American poetry. A wide-ranging and stimulating critical guide to twentieth-century American poetry. Written by a leading authority on the innovative modernist poet William Carlos Williams. Explores the material, historical, and social contexts in which twentieth-century American poetry was produced. Includes a biographical dictionary of major writers with extended entries on poets ranging from Robert Frost to Adrienne Rich. Contains a section on key texts, considering major works such as The Waste Land, North South, Howl, and Ariel. The final section draws out key themes such as American poetry, politics, and war, and the process of anthologizing at the end of the century.

Recycling Culture(s) Sara Martín, 2009-03-26 Culture survives today by means of a constant recycling, optimistically trying to overcome its own decadence in the 21st century. Recycling Culture(s) addresses from a variety of perspectives this strategy, analyzing not only a wide range of texts but also of cultural practices. As the volume shows, culture thrives on a permanent state of flux, borrowing materials for its own survival wherever they are found and always favouring hybridity. This refers not only to how texts cross genre and medium boundaries but also to how identities and the very idea of
