Americas Best Colleges 1995 College Guide:

Winds of Change Magazine's Annual College Guide for American Indians, 1994 Peterson's Guide to Four-Year Colleges, 1995 Peterson's Guides, Inc, 1994-06 This year's edition of Peterson's bestselling guide features extended coverage of student life faculty and programs career planning services and financial policies in addition to the unparalleled detailed information on nearly 2 000 four year colleges that readers have come to expect The ERIC Review, 1997 Provides information on programs research publications and services of ERIC as well as critical and current education information The Best Resources for College Choice & Admissions Resource Pathways, Inc, 1996 Status Envy Anne Hendershott, 2017-09-08 The debate within Catholic educational circles on whether church sponsored colleges and universities perpetuate mediocrity by giving too great a priority to the moral development of students instead of scholarship and intellectual excellence continues in this book by sociologist Anne Hendershott She asserts that part of the reason for the crisis of faith within Catholic colleges is due to status envy the desire to compete with the top colleges in the country Catholic universities are generally not rated as top notch They are viewed as having a lower status than secular institutions which of course creates resentment Catholic universities in turn become more secular as they become consumed with status concerns Detailing how this resentment manifests itself on campuses Hendershott explains faculty and administrative attempts to distance universities from Catholic ideas and curriculum Some have distanced themselves so far from their Catholic origins that the church no longer recognizes them as Catholic institutions The author questions whether even determined Catholic universities will be able to avoid the pressures to become more secular Hendershott who clearly sympathizes with the original mission of Catholic universities leads the reader through the earliest signs that Catholic colleges were beginning to lose their way in the 1960s up through the ongoing issues of feminism and homosexuality and their impact In focusing on these secular issues colleges are denying exposure to the traditional Catholic views on subjects such as homosexuality women's ordination and abortion Like all culture wars the interaction among people defines the situation The campus is a reflection of the greater culture between those who assert that there are no truths only readings and those who believe that the truths have been revealed and require constant rereading and application It is a conflict between those dedicated to the negation of the authority of Scripture and the hierarchy of the church and those proposing a renaissance of the Catholic intellect and a renewed appreciation of the church itself U.S. News & World Report, 1996 SCAN/info, 1994
