American Perspectives:

American Perspectives, 1992 The Vietnam War: Vietnamese and American Perspectives Jayne Werner, Luu Doan Huynh, 2015-02-18 This volume derives from an unprecedented seminar held at Columbia University's School of International and Public Affairs in November 1990. At the seminar leading Western diplomatic and military historians and Vietnam scholars met with prominent Vietnamese Communists to reflect on the Vietnam War. The book contains four parts: The Vietnamese Revolution and Political Military strategy; the war from the American side; the war in the South and Cambodia; and retrospective and postwar issues. In addition to Jane Werner and Luu Doan Huynh, the contributors are Mark Bradley, William Duiker, David Elliott, Christine White, George Vickers, James Harrison, George Herring, Ronald Spector, Paul Joseph, Jeffrey Clarke, Ngo Vinh Long, Benedict Kiernan, Marilyn Young, Keith Taylor, and Tran Van Tra. General Tra was Commander of the People's Liberation Armed Forces of South Vietnam from 1963 to 1975. His eye-opening analysis of the Tet Offensive has never before been available in English.

African-American Perspectives on Biomedical Ethics Harley Flack, Edmund D. Pellegrino, 1992. By analyzing the amalgam of Greek philosophy, Jewish and Christian teachings, and secular humanism that composes our dominant ethical system, the authors of this volume explore the question of whether or not Western and non-Western moral values can be commingled without bilateral loss of cultural integrity. They take as their philosophical point of departure the observation that both ethical relativism and ethical absolutism have become morally indefensible in the context of the multicultural American life, and they variously consider the need for an ethical middle ground.

Fears For Democracy Regarded From the American Point of View. by Charles Ingersoll, 1875. Excerpt from Fears for Democracy Regarded From the American Point of View. These pages, which have been much curtailed from what were prepared for the press in the hope by diminishing their number of increasing the chance of their being read, rest on a position not indeed very new, that it is from the people government like ours must take its measure that democratic institutions are meaningless when the people leave the watch beginning to agitate when a single citizen deserts his duty and getting worse and worse as skulking goes on.
