Colonialism and Underdevelopment in Ghana Rhoda Howard, 2023-05-03 Colonialism and Underdevelopment in Ghana 1978 examines Ghana's integration into the world economic system and the effects which such integration had on its development. The time period covered coincides both with the institution of formal political control in Ghana and with the use of that control to promote Ghana's development as a peripheral capitalist nation as a supplier of primary agricultural and mineral products and as a buyer of manufactured goods. 1939 is taken as the cut off for this book as it ends the classical colonial period.

The Business of Decolonization S. E. Stockwell, 2000 The Business of Decolonization serves to deepen our understanding of the end of the British empire too often approached as if it was a process shaped and experienced exclusively by nationalist and imperial politicians and policy makers. It explores British companies experience of and involvement in developments leading to the transfer of power in Ghana the former colony of the Gold Coast. The book demonstrates that businessmen developed strategies to cope with political change reveals the extent of their involvement in nationalist politics and highlights the contrasting responses of different companies to political and constitutional developments in the colony Drawing on an extensive range of company business association personal and official papers the book focuses primarily on company activity However it also investigates relations between British firms and the colonial state on the eve of Ghanaian independence and examines the place of British business interests in British policy The Political Economy of Housing and Urban Development in Africa Kwadwo Konadu-Agyemang,2001 The problems of providing affordable and adequate housing in Sub Saharan Africa with a focus on the urban experience in Ghana Development in Africa, South of the Sahara, 1970-1980 ,1984 The Intervention of International Organisations in Food Policies in Sub-Saharan Africa Claude Kwaku Akpokavie,1996 An Anatomy Of Ghanaian Politics Naomi Chazan,2019-02-28 The paths of African states have diverged markedly since the termination of colonial rule Nevertheless Ghana the first African state to achieve independence epitomizes both the political gyrations and the overall stagnation common to many other countries on the continent This work concentrates on the 1969 1982 period in Ghana focusing on two interrelated facets of African politics the decline of state power and authority and adjustments to political recession The author traces the dual patterns of diminution of the state and the adaptation of autonomous coping mechanisms in the separate spheres of political leadership political structures and institutions ideology and political economy The dynamic of state society interactions is then treated in terms of the rhythm of dissent conflict and disengagement Dr Chazan provides a comprehensive study of Ghanaian politics from the 1970s to the present By systematically analyzing the process of political decline and regeneration she highlights similar processes apparent elsewhere in Africa The stress on the subtleties and direction of political change has important implications for policymakers and policy analysts alike Is There an African Concept of Human Rights? Rhoda E.
