Colour Of Light:

Colour, Light and Wonder in Islamic Art Idries Trevathan, 2020-02-17 The experience of colour in Islamic visual culture has historically been overlooked In this new approach Idries Trevathan examines the language of colour in Islamic art and architecture in dialogue with its aesthetic contexts offering insights into the pre modern Muslim experience of interpreting colour The seventeenth century Shah Mosque in Isfahan Iran represents one of the finest examples of colour use on a grand scale Here Trevathan examines the philosophical and mystical traditions that formed the mosque s backdrop He shows how careful combinations of colour and design proportions in Islamic patterns expresses knowledge beyond that experienced in the corporeal world offering another language with which to know and experience God Colour thus becomes a spiritual language calling for a re consideration of how we read Islamic aesthetics

The Colour, Light and Contrast Manual Keith Bright, Geoffrey Cook, 2010-01-06 Endorsed by the Society of Light and Lighting this practical book offers comprehensive guidance on how colour light and contrast can be incorporated within buildings to enhance their usability The book provides state of the art clear guidance as well as a valuable information source for busy professionals involved in the design or management of new and existing environments The ways colour light and contrast are used within built environments are critical in determining how people interact with the space and how confident safe and secure they will feel when doing so They also have a major influence on a person s sense of well being and their ability to use the environment independently and without undue effort Understanding how to use colour and contrast and how they are influenced by both natural and artificial lighting is vital for all those involved in the design and management of the environments and spaces we all use In recent years there has been a considerable amount of work undertaken to further our understanding of how colour light and contrast affect emotion and sensory abilities and how they can assist or hinder people in their everyday lives Other publications consider these issues individually but The Colour Light and Contrast Manual designing and managing inclusive built environments draws knowledge and information together to produce a unique comprehensive and informative guide to how the three elements can work together to improve the design and management of environments for us all Supporting website at www.wiley.com/go/brightandcook

Colour Of Light: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous captivating novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This captivating coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
