Colored Museum:

The Colored Museum George C. Wolfe, 1988 Eleven sketches exhibits in the Colored Museum offer a humorous and irreverent look at slavery Black cuisine soldiers family life performers and parties Monologues for Actors of Color Roberta Uno, 2000 Some playwrights featured include Derek Walcott Pomo Afro Homos Anna Deavere Smith Latins Anonymous Genny Lim Aishah Rahman Leslie Lee and Guillermo Reyes The Black Male in White America Jacob U. Gordon, 2002 This book explores twelve related research topics each constituting a chapter These chapters reflect the magnitude of the problems facing the African American male The book also documents the success stories of African American men and how they have lived beyond stereotypes and other odds These problems are not likely to go away in the 21st century They require government action and individual initiative toward a civil society in which America's promise can be a reality for all Americans thus making sure that no single American will be left behind New York Magazine, 1986-11-17 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Black Comedy Pamela Faith Jackson, Karimah, 1997 Applause Books This first of its kind collection includes a wide range of works from an early examination and critique of American society after World War II to plays that reflect socio political concerns that kept pace with historical events like the sit in demonstrations the bus boycotts black nationalism and the women's liberation movement A hybrid of comedic forms including satire farce comedy of manners romantic comedy dark comedy and tragicomedy are presented through vernacular language stand up performance art masks broad humor as well as the minstrel show Essays articles and interviews complement this critical edition Reclaiming Time Isaiah Matthew Wooden, 2025-03-15 Showing how twenty first century Black theater and media arts challenge dominant conceptualizations of time Reclaiming Time Race Temporality and Black Expressive Culture examines works by contemporary Black artists in multiple media drama film performance art and photography that trouble dominant conceptualizations and normative configurations of time in relation to race in the twenty first century Isaiah Matthew Wooden explores the ways in which an intentional and sometimes ludic engagement with time and temporality has enabled these artists to probe urgent questions and themes concerning the conditions of contemporary Black life Wooden surveys a diverse array of performance based and visual texts to explore the rich practices of contemporary Black expressive culture dramatic works by playwrights Eisa Davis Tarell Alvin McCraney and Robert O Hara performance art and photography by visual artists Jefferson Pinder and LaToya Ruby Frazier and feature length cinema by director producer Tanya Hamilton These works expose normative time as specious and evidence the transformative potential in honing practices of Black temporal experimentation and intervention

By putting this cross disciplinary set of texts in conversation with each other Wooden sheds new light on the shrewd ways that they each reflect an investment in unbinding time from the exigencies of normativity and teleology as well as on their shared commitments to reclaiming time to reimagine and represent Blackness in all its multiplicities Challenging History in the Museum Jenny Kidd, Sam Cairns, Alex Drago, Amy Ryall, 2016-04-08 Challenging History in the Museum explores work with difficult contested and sensitive heritages in a range of museum contexts It is based on the Challenging History project which brings together a wide range of heritage professionals practitioners and academics to explore heritage and museum learning programmes in relation to difficult and controversial subjects The book is divided into four sections Part I The Emotional Museum examines the balance between empathic and emotional engagement and an objective rational understanding of history Part II Challenging Collaborations explores the opportunities and pitfalls associated with collective inclusive representations of our heritage Part III Ethics Ownership Identity questions who is best qualified to identify represent and own these histories It challenges the concept of ownership and personal identification as a prerequisite to understanding and investigates the ideas and controversies surrounding this premise Part IV Teaching Challenging History helps us to explore the ethics and complexities of how challenging histories are taught The book draws on work countries around the world including Brazil Cambodia Canada England Germany Japan Northern Ireland Norway Scotland South Africa Spain and USA and crosses a number of disciplines Museum and Heritage Studies Cultural Policy Studies Performance Studies Media Studies and Critical Theory Studies It will also be of interest to scholars of Cultural History and Art History
