An Angel In The Making:

An Angel in the Making Gary J. McCleary, 2013-03-02 There had been a Change and now only one third of Earth's inhabitants remained on the original Earth. These were the ones who truly cared for each other and their planet and for whom the very idea of hurting any living creature was totally abhorrent. For the rest, the ones who still believed in violence to some extent, a new and duplicate Earth had been created in another place. Unfortunately, the plan went horribly wrong right from the start. Now Michael and Alana and their family find they are trapped forever in a world consumed by a war that can never end and not even death itself offers a release. Angels365 - an Angel for Everyday Raymond McMahon, 2009-09-26 This reference book A5 was written to help people learn who the Angels are and show how they can be asked for assistance and guidance. Angels always want to help and can be called upon to bring happiness into our lives. This book is not a religious book as Angels are prepared to work with anyone regardless of their religious beliefs or opinions. Many of us are aware of the main Archangels Michael, Gabriel, Raphael, and Uriel, but there are many other Angels who want to help. You will see that in this book every page is dedicated to a different Angel so you can learn about a new Angel everyday of the year. You can also consider the different thoughts of the day which will help you to look at different aspects of your own life in more detail.

An Abridgement of the History of England Rapin de Thoyras (M., Paul), 1747 New-Church Messenger, 1913 Every Business Needs an Angel John May, Cal Simons, 2001-12-18 What's the biggest problem most entrepreneurs face? Raising money. Without cash, you can't get a business off the ground or keep it running. However, many entrepreneurs have a problem. On one hand, the traditional sources of financing—family, friends, personal savings, the local bank—are often inadequate. On the other, the venture capitalists who have played such an important role in the high-tech industry are interested only in investing much higher sums than most entrepreneurs need. Enter angels, a new type of investor looking to invest between 100,000 and 1,000,000 in a company. There are about three million angel investors, and there's a huge market of entrepreneurs who would be entrepreneurs who want to learn how to attract angels' interest and their money. John May and Cal Simmons are at the forefront of this trend. Not only do they have years of experience in advising, managing, and investing in early-stage companies; they are also the originators of The Dinner Club, a Washington, D.C.-based group of successful businesspeople who hear pitches by entrepreneurs seeking funding and then decide whether to invest their own or the club's money in those entrepreneurial ideas. Every Business Needs an Angel offers a fly-on-the-wall look at how angel investors evaluate new entrepreneurial ideas and provides a wealth of practical advice and insight for the countless entrepreneurs seeking help in their quest to find investors for their businesses. The book covers all phases of the process of finding angels and persuading them to invest, drawing on many examples of real-world companies that have pitched angels successfully as well as unsuccessfully. These entrepreneurs are in a broad range of industries, from high-technology companies to more traditional businesses as diverse as breweries and concierge services, some quite well-known like Nantucket Nectars and Preview Travel.

whose founders had their own guardian angels For entrepreneurs who need money and advice on how to find it the authors offer enormous insight into this new breed of investor As the title says every business needs an angel this book tells you how to find one The Arguments of Aquinas J.J.
