Why Christians Should Understand Islam Tanki E. Nthontho, 2026-01-14

Why Christians Should Understand Islam: A Critical Examination of Beliefs, History, and Truth Claims. In a world where Christianity and Islam increasingly intersect culturally, politically, and theologically, ignorance is no longer a safe option. Understanding Islam is essential, not only for dialogue but for discernment. Why Christians Should Understand Islam equips Christian readers with a clear, historically grounded understanding of Islamic beliefs, origins, and truth claims. Moving beyond stereotypes and surface-level comparisons, this book examines Islam's foundations alongside Christian theology, highlighting where the two faiths converge and where they fundamentally diverge. Through careful analysis of Islamic scripture, prophetic tradition, and historical development, the book explores key questions surrounding revelation, the nature of God, the role of Muhammad, salvation, and authority. Islamic claims are examined in light of historical evidence, early sources, and scholarly research, while Christian doctrines are treated with theological seriousness rather than assumption. This is not a call to hostility nor an exercise in interfaith flattery; it is an invitation to informed faith—one that understands competing truth claims, recognizes historical context, and engages respectfully without surrendering conviction. Written for Christians who value truth, clarity, and intellectual honesty, this book provides the knowledge necessary to engage Islam thoughtfully, whether in conversation, study, or personal reflection. Understanding Islam is not a threat to Christian faith; when approached with knowledge rather than fear, it can sharpen belief, deepen discernment, and strengthen conviction.
