An Enquiry into the Nature of Certain Nineteenth Century Pamphlets

by

John Carter and Graham Pollard

This book is a fully documented exposure of a group of more than fifty "first editions" of such eminent authors as Wordsworth, Tennyson, Dickens, Thackeray, the Brownings, Swinburne, George Eliot, William Morris, R. L. Stevenson, and Rudyard Kipling. These items are mostly of the type of the "privately printed" or "pre-first" pamphlet. They appear in all the standard bibliographies and have been generally accepted for upwards of thirty years. Yet, in the light of the evidence assembled here, more than thirty of them are shown to be forgeries and the status of the remainder to be open to considerable suspicion.

The exposure of the real character of these books introduces scientific methods which have never before been applied to bibliographical problems of this period. The paper has been analysed under the microscope and its evidence assessed in the light of some original research into the history of paper manufacture. The peculiarities of type have been traced to the printer. The involved story of the establishment of these books in bibliographies and in the rare-book market is patiently unravelled.
