Vikram Seth's Poetics of Pastiche Mélanie Heydari, 2024-09-21 Vikram Seth is a critical enigma He is recognized as one of the most important Indian Anglophone authors of his generation his individual works have been widely reviewed yet his work has rarely been approached as a whole and remains surprisingly understudied Perhaps the chief reason for the paucity of critical response to the full compass of Seth's work is his disregard for intellectual fashion Indeed Seth is at once very popular and deliberately unfashionable His literary affiliations are conservative seemingly uninterested in any revisionary narrative he is equally unconcerned by the interpenetration of cultures in our globalized world representing assimilation rather than cultural difference He defies the expectations of both postcolonial and world literature therefore to discuss his critical neglect is to shed light on the limitations of these labels As the most thorough attempt to map a general poetics in Seth's work this study the first of its kind on this writer develops a new critical methodology to capture the nuances of Seth's literary strategies It provides scholars and students insight into the key features of Seth's work and uncovers a consistent authorial strategy running through his seemingly disconnected body of work namely a systematic use of intertextual practices Adorno and the Architects of Late Style in India Tania Roy, 2021-03-11 In the postcolonial world the claim to an emancipated national culture was bound to its aesthetic correlate the unfolding time and experiments of the twentieth century novel Today the constructs of both novel and a progressivist national project function in all their closures within global scales of economic disparity and violent exclusion What is the fate of a literary canon when it is no longer capable of delineating a future or otherwise is bound to reproduce the failures of the past within its own inscriptions How do we experience our current globalist moment when lived inequities of gender labour and ethnicity emerge in a text's inability to speak on time When does artistic or literary failure become the measure of a work's accomplishment And what sort of liberation is envisioned by works that refuse the imperatives of progress and independence which embrace the appearance of obsolescence by rejecting values of artistic freedom originality and innovation These are some of the provocations that arise from T W Adorno's idea of late style for our own conjuncture a properly postcolonial context in which every conceptual or expressive engagement is articulated through an awareness of eroded national promise Examining works by Rabindranath Tagore Mulk Raj Anand Vikram Seth and the photography of Dayanita Singh Tania Roy examines the delayed claims of literary and artistic modernity in India through Adorno's category of late style In striking readings of Adorno and his interlocutors the book extends a poetics of lateness toward a speculative history of the twentieth century novel in India Comprised of critically neglected selections from the oeuvres of canonical writers Adorno and the Architects of Late Style in India proposes that under conditions of advanced capitalism logics of redundancy overtake the novel's foundational reference point in the nation to produce altered frames of thought and sensibility and therein a reader who might encounter anew the figures of an unfulfilled twentieth century Vikram Seth's Art Roopali Gupta, 2005 Vikram Seth is one of the most well known and successful names in the Indian English writing Today internationally renowned for his artistic skill of blending the poet's sensitivity with the narrator's comprehension of the elements of plot structure and character Seth has been able to span geographical and national barriers and played a major role in bringing the Indian English writing onto the stage of world literature The present book Vikram Seth's Art An Appraisal is the first full length study of Vikram Seth's entire literary output It introduces the readers to Vikram Seth's life and background and evaluates his writings his thematic concerns his diversification into different genres and his contribution to the present day literary scene Seth's work merits detailed study and this book presents a comprehensive analysis of the different aspects of his writing It is hoped that the book would be of great interest to the readers who are fond of English novels and poems In addition it will prove useful to the students of English literature Etude Music Magazine Theodore Presser, 1892 Includes music The American School, 1917 Musical Times and Singing Class Circular, 1903 The Musical Times, 1908 An equal music, 2000 Sound and music : a non-mathematical treatise on the physical constitution of musical sounds and harmony, including the chief
