Bain,2017-12-15 Excerpt from An Essence of the Dusk Nothing induces slumber like exertion under an Indian sun When I awoke that sun was setting A little way before me the yellow walls of Delhi were bathed in a ruddy glow the minarets of the Great Mosque stood out sharp against the clear unspotted amber sky And as I watched them I suddenly became aware that I was myself observed with interest by a dusky individual who was squatted just in front of me and who rose salaaming when he saw that I was awake It appeared that I had so to say fallen into a nest of vipers that I had unwittingly invaded the premises of a snake dealer who no doubt for solid reasons had made my friendly tomb the temporary repository of his stock in trade About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Essence of the Dusk ,1900

of the Dusk F. W. Bain,2021-10-16 There lived of old on the edge of the desert a r j of the race of the sun And like that sun reflected at midday in the glassy depths of the M nasa lake he had an image of himself in the form of a son who exactly resembled him in every particular except age And he gave him the name of Aja for he said He is not another but my very self that has conquered death and passed without birth straight over into another body Moreover he will resemble his ancestor and the god after whom I have called him Aja So as this son grew up his father s delight in him grew greater also For he was tall as a sh la tree and very strong and yet like another God of Love for his face was more beautiful than the face of any woman with large eyes like lapis lazuli and lips like laughter incarnate so that his father as often as he looked at him said to himself Surely the Creator has made a mistake and mixed up his male and female ingredients and made him half and half For if only he had had a twin sister it would have been difficult to tell with certainty which was which And then when Aja was eighteen his father died And immediately his relations conspired against him led by his maternal uncle And they laid a plot and seized him at night and bound him when he was asleep for they dared not attack him when he was awake for fear of his courage and his prodigious strength And they deliberated over him as he lay bound what they should do with him and some of them were for putting him to death then and there But the prime minister who was in the plot persuaded them to let him live saying to himself In this way I shall make for myself a loophole of escape in case he should ever regain his throne
