Corruption Of Power:

African Politics, the Corruption of Power Ken C. Kotecha, Robert W. Adams, 1981 Philosophical Perspectives on Power and Domination Laura Duhan Kaplan, Laurence F. Bove, 1997 The essays in this volume explore in detail many of the ways power structures our daily personal political and intellectual lives and evaluate the workings of power using a variety of theoretical paradigms from Hobbesian liberalism to Foucauldian feminist postmodernism Taken as a whole the book aims towards an end to unjust and destructive uses of power and the flowering of an encouraging educated empowerment for all human beings in a pluralistic world Section I offers a progressive chain of arguments that moves from the acceptance of domination through the rejection of domination and finally to a new vision of power based on equality and mutual respect Section II explores the questions how is the philosophical self that is our very understanding of who we are implicated in the web of power and domination Section III responds to political realism as it explores morally ideal solutions to the global problems of poverty war and hunger Section IV discusses ways in which our thought and practice in both public and private life are bound up in hierarchies of domination

Political Corruption in Africa Inge Amundsen, 2019 Analysing political corruption as a distinct but separate entity from bureaucratic corruption this timely book separates these two very different social phenomena in a way that is often overlooked in contemporary studies Chapters argue that political corruption includes two basic critical and related processes extractive and power preserving corruption

Corruption and Anti-corruption Peter Larmour, Nick Wolanin, 2013-03-01 Corruption and Anti Corruption deals with the international dimensions of corruption including campaigns to recover the assets of former dictators and the links between corruption transnational and economic crime It deals with corruption as an issue in political theory and shows how it can be addressed in campaigns for human rights It also presents case studies of reform efforts in Philippines India and Thailand The book explains the doctrines of a well established domestic anticorruption agency It is based on research to develop a curriculum for a unique international training course on Corruption and Anti Corruption designed and taught by academics at The Australian National University the Australian Institute of Criminology and public servants in the New South Wales Independent Commission Against Corruption

The Premodern Chinese Economy Gang Deng, 2002-01-04 Covering the time span from the Shang to the Qing Periods 1520BC 1911AD Gang Deng examines important factors in the decline of the Chinese economy from medieval sophistication to modern underdevelopment These factors include resource endowments socio economic structure property rights state and bureaucracy ideology and values geo political environment internal rebellions external invasions and conquests The Premodern Chinese Economy is a comprehensive analysis of China s economic history and provides essential background to the study of this country s modern struggle for growth and development Deng s emphasis on comparative analysis offers new insights into the concept of underdevelopment and theories of transitional economics This will become a major reference work in the fields of Chinese studies economic history
