Costing community care A. Netten,1993      Costing Community Care Ann Netten,Jennifer Beecham,2018-12-17
Published in 1993 Valid and useful costings in social and health care depend not only on a knowledge of costing theory but also on overcoming the practical difficulties involved The authors of this book draw on eighteen years of research at the Personal Social Services Research Unit PSSRU to describe the theory and practise of costing and its uses Costing Community Care differs from other books which address the subject by acknowledging and discussing the practical difficulties of costing and by examining in detail the interface between theory and practice Principles and methodologies are identified and pragmatic approaches to achieving valid data in the face of practical difficulties are described Examples from empirical research are used to illustrate particular issues and four case studies are included which reflect a variety of methodologies and policy issues      Costing Community Care Ann Netten,Jennifer Beecham,2018      Costing the Community Care Nuffield Centre for Community Care Studies, Glasgow (GB).,2002      Costing the Community Care Community Care Works (Organization),2002      Costing Community Care Ken Buckingham,Anne Ludbrook,1989      Costing Community Health Services S. J. Duckett,Judith Mary Ellen,1982 This monograph has discussed the design of a costing system for community health services and provided information resulting from the implementation of the system in the inner metropolitan region of the health commission of new south wales From this study the data allow the apportioning of week effort to characteristics such as age sex or ethnicity the determination of the contribution of non client services through the analysis of purpose And the determination of costs of services provided through the community health program in the region The implementation of this costing system has shown that it is possible to determine the costs of community health services in a viable way using an approach which more represented the true cost in terms of economic or accounting theory      Cost-effectiveness in Community Care Ken Wright,1987      Counting the Costs of Community Care Alan Shiell,Ken Wright,1988      Costing Community Health Services Judith Mary Ellen,1982      Community Care Bleddyn Davies,University of Kent at Canterbury.
