Counting-Out Rhymes of Children (Classic Reprint) Walter Gregor,2016-10-07 Excerpt from Counting Out Rhymes of Children Among the Romans future events were prognosticated from the casting of lots These lots were a kind of dice made either of wood gold or other material with certain letters words or marks inscribed on them They were thrown commonly into an urn sometimes filled with water and drawn out either by a boy or by the one who consulted the oracle The priests of the temple interpreted the meaning of the lots as they were drawn out The lots were sometimes thrown like common dice At times it was decided by lot who was to preside at a meeting Thus at the committee for electing the consuls and creating the praetors the consuls fixed by lot which of them was to preside if they did not decide by consent Sometimes the election of magistrates priests and other functionaries was effected by the lot About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

outshout one another policing their own conversations stating their own prejudices and vying with one another for dominion The first transcript in the book tracks a conversation among three related boys and shows that racism is part of the family interchange Among second grade boys and girls at a Catholic school another transcript presents numerous examples in which boys use insults to dominate a conversation with girls and girls use giggles and sly comebacks to counter this aggression Though collected in the areas of New Orleans Baton Rouge and Lafayette Louisiana this volume shows how south Louisiana child lore is connected to other English speaking places England Scotland Ireland Australia and New Zealand as well as the rest of the United States
