Seeds of Empire Tom Brooking, Eric Pawson, 2010-10-05 The traditional image of New Zealand is one of verdant landscapes with sheep grazing on lush green pastures Yet this landscape is almost entirely an artificial creation As Britain became increasingly reliant on its overseas territories for supplies of food and raw material so all over the Empire indigenous plants were replaced with English grasses to provide the worked up products of pasture meat butter cheese wool and hides In New Zealand this process was carried to an extreme with forest cleared and swamps drained How why and with what consequences did the transformation of New Zealand into these empires of grass occur Seeds of Empire provides both an exciting appraisal of New Zealand's environmental history and a long overdue exploration of the significance of grass in the processes of sowing empire Farm Journal and Country Gentleman, 1923 Making Sheep Country Robert Peden, 2013-11 From the 1840s through World War I the South Island of New Zealand was transformed as large tracts of land were claimed native vegetation was burned and large scale sheep farming was established for wool and later meat production This record focuses on one case study in particular John Barton Acland and the Mt Peel Station in South Canterbury New Zealand to explain how the pastoralists modified their environment Providing ample insight into the farmers world from the sheep they bred to the rabbits droughts and floods they fought this history is a sweeping portrait of the economic and ecological transformation of New Zealand Quill & Quire, 1987 Country Journal, 1987 Blair & Ketchum's Country Journal, 1983 British Union-catalogue of Periodicals: A-C James Douglas Stewart, 1955

Africa A to Z: Continental and Country Profiles Esterhuysen, Pieter, 2013-12-07 The popularity of the first two editions of this book necessitated a third revised and updated version to record the many challenges in Africa since the first edition appeared in 1998 Africa is a vast and fascinating continent whose population has exceeded the one billion mark Africa A Z attempts to provide in a concise manner the facts for an elementary understanding of the continent and its complex problems The book falls into two main sections the five chapters on the first main section focus on the continent as a whole dealing with its physical and human diversity its eventful history and Africans struggle for economic survival The second main section contains profiles of 58 independent countries ranging from Algeria to Zimbabwe

Presentation of the profiles is uniform in that the same themes are covered in each profile The data panels with the profiles contain data not provided in the text The maps appearing throughout the text were produced by AISA s cartography department Journal of Horticulture, Cottage Gardener, and Country Gentleman (varies Slightly) ,1904

Equestrian Cultures Kristen Guest,Monica Mattfeld,2019-01-11 As much as dogs cats or any domestic animal horses exemplify the vast range of human animal interactions Horses have long been deployed to help with a variety of human activities from racing and riding to police work farming warfare and therapy and have figured heavily in the history of natural sciences social sciences and the humanities Most accounts of the equine human relationship however fail to address the last few centuries of Western history focusing instead on pre 1700 interactions Equestrian Cultures fills in the gap telling the story of how prominently horses continue to figure in our lives up to the present day Kristen Guest and Monica Mattfeld place the modern period front and center in this collection illuminating the largely untold story of how the horse has responded to the accelerated pace of modernity The book s contributors explore equine cultures across the globe drawing from numerous interdisciplinary sources to show how horses have unexpectedly influenced such distinctively modern fields as photography anthropology and feminist theory Equestrian Cultures boldly steps forward to redefine our view of the most recent developments in our long history of equine partnership and sets the course for future examinations of this still strong bond Africa A to Z: Continental and Country Profiles Pieter Esterhuysen,2013-12-07 The popularity of the first two editions of this book necessitated a third revised and updated version to record the many challenges in Africa since the first edition appeared in 1998 Africa is a vast and fascinating continent whose population has exceeded the one billion mark Africa A Z attempts to provide in a concise manner the facts for an elementary understanding of the continent and its complex problems The book falls into two main sections the five chapters on the first main section focus on the continent as a whole dealing with its physical and human diversity its eventful history and Africans struggle for economic survival The second main section contains profiles of 58 independent countries ranging from Algeria to Zimbabwe Presentation of the profiles is uniform in that the same themes are covered in each profile The data panels with the profiles contain data not provided in the text The maps appearing throughout the text were produced by AISAs cartography department Pennsylvania

Strachwitz,2019-08-19 The seemingly vitalizing impact of religiosity on civil society is a research topic that has been extensively looked into not only in the USA but increasingly also in a European context What is missing is an evaluation of the role of institutionalized religious communities and of circumstances that facilitate or impede their status as civil society organisations This anthology in two volumes aims at closing this gap by providing case studies regarding political legal and historical aspects in various European countries Vol I provides an introduction and looks at cases in Greece Italy the
