The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture Juliet John, 2016-06-30 The Oxford Handbook of Victorian Literary Culture is a major contribution to the dynamic field of Victorian studies This collection of 37 original chapters by leading international Victorian scholars offers new approaches to familiar themes including science religion and gender and gives space to newer and emerging topics including old age fair play and economics Structured around three broad sections Ways of Being Identity and Ideology Ways of Understanding Knowledge and Belief and Ways of Communicating Print and Other Cultures the volume is sub divided into nine sub sections each with its own lead essay on subjectivity politics gender and sexuality place and race religion science material and mass culture aesthetics and visual culture and theatrical culture The collection like today s Victorian studies is thoroughly interdisciplinary and yet its substantial Introduction explores a concern which is evident both implicitly and explicitly in the volume s essays that is the nature and status of literary culture and the literary from the Victorian period to the present The diverse and wide ranging essays present original scholarship framed accessibly for a mixed readership of advanced undergraduates graduate students and established scholars

The Becoming of Age Pamela H. Gravagne, 2013-04-26 The Becoming of Age is an examination of the ways that aging and old age are represented in popular film Arguing that the ideas behind cinematic depictions of aging are historical and open to revision the author looks at how movies both promote negative portrayals of aging and challenge its persistent cultural devaluation Movies are a site of struggle where the representation and the reality of aging intertwine and they have the power not only to reflect but to reconstruct our understanding

Old Age as Lifestyle in an Active Society Stephen Katz, 1999

Figuring Age Kathleen Woodward, 1999-03-22 Figuring Age engages the virtually invisible subject of older women in western culture Like other markers of social difference age is given meaning by a culture Yet unlike gender and race the subjects of age and aging have received little sustained attention Central to Figuring Age is the crucial question of how women are aged by culture How are older women represented in a visual culture that is dominated by images of youth in television film and life performance How do psychoanalysis rejuvenation therapy and hormone replacement therapy the fashion system cosmetic surgery and midlife bodybuilding shape our views of aging as well as of the older body itself What is the timing of aging To what extent is aging a culturally induced trauma
