Discourse A Critique And Synthesis Of Major Theories:

Discourse Timothy W. Crusius,1989-01     A Handbook to the Exegesis of the New Testament Stanley E. Porter,1997 This handbook provides a substantial theoretical and practical guide to the multi faceted discipline of exegesis of the New Testament It offers succinct and well informed essays with plenty of bibliography written by experts in their respective fields The handbook will serve well as a textbook as well as a reference book to the major tools and topics in the area This publication has also been published in paperback please click here for details     PRE/TEXT Victor J. Vitanza,2010-11-23 After the first issue of PRE TEXT appeared in 1981 a colleague told Victor Vitanza the creator editor and publisher of the journal how disgusted she was by it how unreadable it was how devoted to self aggrandizement and how much she enjoyed two articles in it Devoted to exploring and expanding the field of rhetoric and composition by publishing articles considered inappropriate by other journals in the field PRE TEXT has from its inception made people angry Yet it has survived and thrived This collection of essays pays tribute to the first ten years of the journal and each reprinted article is paired with a short comment by the author Also included is Victor Vitanza s retrospective history of the journal and prospectives for the future     Aims of Argument Timothy Crusius,Carolyn Channell,2003 Provides an introduction to argumentation with coverage of the aims or purposes of argument to inquire to convince to persuade and to mediate This work focuses on aims to provide rhetorical context that helps students write as well as read arguments It reflects the format of the Modern Language Association documentation style     The Aims of Argument Timothy W. Crusius,Carolyn E. Channell,2003 The Aims of Argument is a process oriented introduction to argumentation with unique coverage of the aims or purposes of argument to inquire to convince to persuade and to mediate In contrast to other approaches the focus on aims provides rhetorical context that helps students write as well as read arguments     Theorizing Composition Mary Kennedy,1998-06-25 The last 25 years have witnessed extraordinary growth in the academic specialization variously described as composition studies or rhetoric and composition What was noticeable about the field in its infancy was a preoccupation with practice a lack of emphasis on theory and an exclusive reliance on the writing process As its disciplinary status has grown the field has become far more theoretical Composition studies has expanded its focus reconceptualized the writing process and embraced a wide range of critical perspectives The result of this change is that terms such as poststructuralism social construction gender and genre which were largely unknown in 1965 now dominate discussion This reference book is a guide to the multiplicity of theories that have emerged to form the disciplinary foundation of composition studies The volume consists of 66 entries each of which is written by an expert contributor and focuses on a particular theory or group of theories While the entries show how various individuals have contributed to theoretical movements very few concentrate on the work of a single theorist Each entry first provides a critical summary of a particular theory or group of theories including key elements basic concepts and claims and information about seminal or particularly influential works It then reviews the theory's critical reception in composition studies and discusses its significance in the field. The bibliography at the end of each entry lists primary texts and major scholarship related to the theory and provides additional suggestions for further reading. The volume closes with a selected bibliography of important works.

Teaching Composition in the 90's Christina G. Russell, Robert L. McDonald, 1994-03
Philosophic Analysis and Educational Theory: Contemporary Readings Donald J. Reitz, 1972
The Riverside Handbook Lynn Beene, Gerry McBroom, William J. Vande Kopple, 1992

Rhetorics and Hermeneutics Stephen Byars Carroll, 1996
The Ethics of Writing Instruction Michael Pemberton, 2000
The chapters in this volume recognize that different contexts, sites, and institutional goals will raise different sets of questions and judgements about what constitutes ethical writing instruction, ethical response to written texts, and ethical evaluation of a writer's process and products. They do not aim to resolve all the ethical questions that might arise in and about composition classrooms, but they present a panoply of views, arguments, and perspectives on what it means to talk about ethics in the writing classroom and thereby encourage writing teachers to consider the ethical dimensions of their own instructional practices.

Acts of Enjoyment Thomas Joseph Rickert, 2007
A critique of current pedagogies that introduces a psychoanalytical approach in teaching composition and rhetoric. Thomas Rickert builds upon the advances of cultural studies and its focus on societal trends and broadens this view by placing attention on the conscious and subconscious thought of the individual. Winner 2007 JAC Gary A. Olson Award
