Winter,1966 Discourse on Free Will Desiderius Erasmus,2005-03-04 Desiderius Erasmus 1466 9 1536 was the most renowned scholar of his age a celebrated humanist and Classicist and the first teacher of Greek at Cambridge An influential figure in the Protestant Reformation though without ever breaking from the Church himself he satirised both human folly and the corruption of the Church Martin Luther 1483 1546 was the founder of the German Reformation His 95 Theses became a manifesto for reform of the Catholic Church and led to his being tried for heresy He remained in Germany Professor of Biblical Exegesis at the University of Wittenburg until his death publishing a large number of works including three major treatises and a translation of the New Testament into German Comprising Erasmus s The Free Will and Luther s The Bondage of the Will Discourse on Free Will is a landmark text in the history of Protestantism Encapsulating the perspective on free will of two of the most important figures in the history of Christianity it remains to this day a powerful thought provoking and timely work Translated and edited by Ernst F Winter Erasmus - Luther Ernst F. Winter,1961 A Church of Passion and Hope Gill K. Goulding CJ,2015-11-19 Jesuits have contributed to the life and theological development of the Church for many generations culminating in Pope Francis the first Jesuit Pope Ignatius Loyola called his men and all those inspired by the Ignatian Spiritual Exercises to a certain ecclesial disposition a way of thinking judging and feeling with the Church Gill Goulding discusses the key texts from St Ignatius life and work to identify the Ignatian ecclesial disposition that is centered on Christ It is fuelled by a Trinitarian horizon and with a clear emphasis on the dignity of every human person Golding introduces and examines key historical figures such as St Pierre Favre and Mary Ward as well as two of the major 20th century theologians Henri de Lubac and Avery Dulles Finally Goulding highlights the Ignatian ecclesial disposition in the highest authority of the contemporary Roman Catholic Church in the background to the pontificates of John

Paul II Benedict XVI and Francis focusing on the centrality of Christ and the work of the New Evangelization This book raises the key questions of the relationship between Christ and the Church as the body of Christ It indicates the importance of maintaining a Trinitarian horizon in theological vision and raises the pertinent if difficult question of the meaning of Christian obedience Goulding also underlines the importance of the integration of spirituality and theology which has ramifications for all Christian denominations and possibilities for ongoing inter faith dialogue The Old Protestantism and the New Brian Gerrish,2004-07-09 It is B A Gerrish s contention in his overview of Protestant ideas gathered together over a number of years that the significance of Protestant ideas cannot be appraised historically if Luther is made the sole point of reference or if the Reformation is treated as something other than a critical moment in a larger historical development to which liberal Protestantism also belongs Nor he maintains can ideas and doctrines be understood in abstraction from the religious experience they express The Old Protestantism and the New therefore redresses the present imbalance in historical studies of Protestantism by raising questions about the intellectual heritage of the Reformers in the modern world Gerrish s approach is shaped by three dominant interests Luther s relation to other Reformers especially Calvin the relationship between classical and liberal Protestant thought and the patterns of religious experience behind theological formulas The originality of the individual chapters which are written for historians as well as specialists in religious thought is enhanced by the way in which the book as a whole brings together pivotal thinkers including Erasmus Schleiermacher and Barth The Lord, the Giver of Life Aaron T. Smith,2021-06-14 In The Lord the Giver of Life Spirit in Relation to Creation Aaron T Smith argues that the Spirit in which God exists is not a mode of being but a pattern of relation which enfolds the world in each moment and gives it a life coordinated with God s God and world find mutual determination in the eschatological achievement of covenantal existence in the triumph of love Smith offers a new take on the biblical story of creation by bringing intricate interpretation of Genesis into productive dialogue with prominent voices of the Christian tradition as well as contributions from modern science and philosophy The creation is not primarily a collection of discrete things but the divinely willed event of communion which takes temporal shape within histories of generation or the history of each generation The human creature exists authentically in the time framing of promise and fulfillment coming to perceive the giving of life as good and right in the manner of the biblical covenant and coming to desire it again gladly consenting to life s interdependent generation Discourse on free will Erasmus Desiderius,Martin Luther,1967 The Perfectibility of Man John Arthur Passmore,2000 Beginning with an analytic discussion of the various ways in which perfectibility has been interpreted Professor Passmore traces its long history from the Greeks to the present day by way of Christianity orthodox and heterodox the Renaissance the Enlightenment anarchism utopias communism psychoanalysis and evolutionary theories of man and society Both in its broad sweep and in countless supporting reflections it is a journey through spiritual scenery of the most majestic and exhilarating kind Thoroughly and elegantly Passmore explores the history of the idea of perfectibility manifest in the ideology of perfectibilism and its consequences which have invariably been catastrophic for individual liberty and responsibility in private social economic and political life The Guide to Catholic Literature Walter Romig,1965
