Discovering Stephen King:

Discovering Stephen King's The Shining Tony Magistrale, 1998-01-01 A survey of criticism on King's book and Kubrick's film adaptation The Shining Discovering Stephen King Darrell Schweitzer, 1985 Landscape of Fear Tony Magistrale, 1988 One of the very first books to take Stephen King seriously Landscape of Fear originally published in 1988 reveals the source of King's horror in the sociopolitical anxieties of the post-Vietnam post-Watergate era In this groundbreaking study Tony Magistrale shows how King's fiction transcends the escapism typical of its genre to tap into our deepest cultural fears that the government we have installed through the democratic process is not only corrupt but actively pursuing our destruction that our technologies have progressed to the point at which the individual has now become expendable and that our fundamental social institutions school marriage workplace and the church have beneath their veneers of respectability evolved into perverse manifestations of narcissism greed and violence Tracing King's moralist vision to the likes of Twain Hawthorne and Melville Landscape of Fear establishes the place of this popular writer within the grand tradition of American literature Like his literary forbears King gives us characters that have the capacity to make ethical choices in an imperfect often evil world Yet he inscribes that conflict within unmistakably modern settings From the industrial nightmare of Graveyard Shift to the breakdown of the domestic sphere in The Shining from the techno horrors of The Stand to the religious fanaticism and adolescent cruelty depicted in Carrie Magistrale charts the contours of King's fictional landscape in its first decade Discovering Stephen King Darrell Schweitzer, 1985 King seems to have pleased everyone except conventional mainstream literary critics which doesn't stop his books from making the best seller list Here are some early critical looks at King and his works circa 1985 Discovering Dean Koontz Bill Munster, 1998-01-01 Dean Koontz started his career as a science fiction writer before he left the genre to ultimately become one of America's best selling authors In this volume author Munster looks at Koontz's horror and dark suspense fiction Discovering Modern Horror Fiction II Darrell Schweitzer, 1988-12-01 Teaching Stephen King A. Burger, 2016-04-08 Teaching Stephen King critically examines the works of Stephen King and several ways King can be incorporated into the high school and college classroom The section on Variations on Horror Tropes includes chapters on the vampire the werewolf the undead monster and the ghost The section on Real Life Horror includes chapters on King's school shooting novella Rage sexual violence and coming of age narratives Finally the section on Playing with Publishing includes chapters on serial publishing and The Green Mile e-books and graphic novels Excavating Stephen King James Arthur Anderson, 2020-10-28 Excavating Stephen King A Darwinist Hermeneutic Study of the Fiction combines approaches from science and literary theory to examine the canon of Stephen King's fiction work in a single critical study James Arthur Anderson has devised the concept of Darwinist Hermeneutics as a critical tool to combine evolutionary psychology neuroscience biology and literary Darwinism with other more conventional critical theory including structuralism narratology semiotics and linguistic analysis Using this theory

Anderson examines King's works in terms of archetypes and mythology human universals affective emotions and the organization of story to create maximum suspense This method brings new insights into King's stories and broader implications for storytelling as a whole Stephen King Tony Magistrale,1992 Twayne's United States Authors English Authors and World Authors Series present concise critical introductions to great writers and their works Devoted to critical interpretation and discussion of an author's work each study takes account of major literary trends and important scholarly contributions and provides new critical insights with an original point of view An Authors Series volume addresses readers ranging from advanced high school students to university professors The book suggests to the informed reader new ways of considering a writer's work Each volume features A critical interpretive study and explication of the author's works A brief biography of the author An accessible chronology outlining the life the work and relevant historical context Aids for further study complete notes and references a selected annotated bibliography and an index A readable style presented in a manageable length The Suspense of Horror and the Horror of Suspense Maria Anastasova,2018-10-12 This book presents a detailed academic study of suspense building in Stephen King's horror novels The Shining and Carrie and their respective film adaptations Two film versions of each book are taken into consideration one released immediately after the novel publication and one that appeared decades later After providing a general idea of what suspense as a phenomenon related to fiction is the study establishes some repeated plot bound suspense motifs and episodes in the literary works and traces their development in the films in order to demonstrate the similarities and differences in the techniques of achieving suspense in literature and in cinema The model detailed here can also be used for individual or comparative suspense analysis of other literary or cinematic works *BP 250 R.
