Discovery To Modernism:

Intermodernism Kristin Bluemel, 2009-10-05 These 10 original critical essays examine the fascinating writing of the Depression and World War II Divided into four sections Work Community War and Documents the volume focuses on texts that are typically ignored in accounts of modernism or The Auden Generation Chapters examine writing by Elizabeth Bowen Storm Jameson William Empson George Orwell J B Priestley Harold Heslop T H White Sylvia Townsend Warner Rebecca West John Grierson Margery Allingham and Stella Gibbons These authors were politically radical or radically eccentric and tended to be committed to working and middle class cultures non canonical genres such as crime and fantasy and minority forms of narrative such as journalism manifestos film and travel narratives as well as novels The volume supports further research with an appendix Who Were the Intermodernists a listing of archival sources and an extensive bibliography Modernist Radicalism and its Aftermath Stephen Crook, 2012-10-12 Modernist Radicalism and its Aftermath investigates the ways in which Marx Durkheim Althusser and Habermas are all drawn towards foundationalism and offers a framework for the analysis of foundationalism in social theory Reading Modernism's Readers Helen Tyson, 2024-07-31 Reading Modernism's Readers Virginia Woolf Psychoanalysis and the Bestseller examines the scene of reading in modernist psychoanalytic and popular writing from the early twentieth century Focusing on the writing of Virginia Woolf and reading her novels alongside writing by Marcel Proust Sigmund Freud James Strachey Ethel M Dell Melanie Klein Marion Milner and others this book challenges our prevailing critical assumptions about modernist reading Reading Modernism's Readers argues that the modernist scene of reading reveals some of our culture's most powerful and enduring fantasies about the role of literature in psychic social and political life Reading modernism alongside psychoanalysis and the bestseller this book aims not only to intervene in debates about modernism but also to address its legacies in contemporary literature and in the context of increasingly urgent questions about how and why we read today Philosophy and Catholic Theology Philip A. Egan, 2017-06-15 This short book offers a survey of recent philosophy and how its different patterns of thought have influenced Catholic theologians Rooted in the questions raised by Vatican I and the directions pointed by Vatican II Philosophy and Catholic Theology shows how theology has developed over the past two centuries and how it builds on the foundations philosophy has laid since the Middle Ages and the crises of the Reformation and the Enlightenment The issue of the relationship between faith and reason so acutely raised in those periods cannot be addressed without some understanding of the sciences that examine those two fields reason is the province of philosophy and faith is the realm of theology Once we have a grasp of philosophy and its questions we are in a better position to understand theology When we have a clear picture of both we can see how theology has built on and been influenced by philosophy And at that point we can begin to see how reason informs faith and how the two work together to yield knowledge of life's most profound realities Philip A Egan is a priest of the Diocese of Shrewsbury England He completed his doctoral studies at the University of

Birmingham and specializes in the thought of John Henry Cardinal Newman and Bernard Lonergan SJ Until recently he was the dean of studies and professor of foundational theology at St Mary's College Oscott Furniture Manufacturer, 1928

Transatlantic Modernism Martin Klepper, Joseph C. Schöpp, 2001 Modernism in Europe and modernism in the United States at first glance these two concepts seem to be quite different if not opposing European modernism it appears is innovative and even iconoclastic Joyce Schonberg Gropius Schwitters American modernism it would seem is rather reconciliatory and even conservative Fitzgerald Gershwin Wright and Hopper The collection of essays in Transatlantic Modernism disproves this point Transatlantic Modernism tackles the modes of transfer translation cross fertilization and reinterpretation which actually characterize the complex relations between European and American cultures within the period of modernism The essays collected in this volume cover a broad array of forms of cultural expression literature Doblin Dos Passos Faulkner etc philosophy Bergson James Dewey painting Gleizes Stella Shahn photography Ray Steichen Sheeler fashion Poiret Delaunay Schiaparelli film Fox Stroheim Lubitsch architecture Bauhaus Johnson Hitchcock and opera Thomson Stein Furniture Record, 1928 The Future of Literary Theory Ralph Cohen, 2016-08-19 In this book first published in 1989 twenty give eminent critics and theorists write about different aspects of literary theory These essays represent leading research in psychoanalytic criticism new historicism Continental theory feminism Afro American studies philosophy cybernetics aesthetics and other theoretical inflections The result is a collective statement on the course that lies ahead for criticism in the humanities and will be of interest to students of literary theory Cavell's Ontology of Film Jeroen Gerrits, 2026-01-13 Cavell's Ontology of Film presents ten essays by some of the most prominent international scholars of Stanley Cavell's work with a double purpose to look back half a century after its original publication at Cavell's now seminal film philosophical book The World Viewed 1971 enlarged 1979 and to draw on its concepts to assess the world in the current age of digital media and climate change The volume opens with a series of essays that revisit Cavell's discussion of film crucially including classical Hollywood movies in the context of modernism Several authors consider whether this preoccupation with modernism in Cavell's early work ultimately and anachronistically gave way to an embrace of romanticism or whether Cavell conceives these frameworks as offering different responses to the persistent problem of skepticism Others consider how popular filmmakers or film genres outside Hollywood might contribute to or alter Cavell's thoughts on the movies Moreover taking to heart that some of Cavell's main lines of thought are premised on the idea of film as an analog medium that projects and screens the world inside a theater several contributions to this volume nevertheless project The World Viewed's concepts onto the future of our televisual and digital culture The volume finally loops back to Cavell's discussion of modernism in The World Viewed so as to find the seeds of a Cavellian politics for the age of climate disaster Thus beyond celebrating the past through a collection of reviews and reflections on The World Viewed a book of ontological reflection that themselves conceive the world on screen as a world past the present volume is best understood as a series of Cavellian meditations on media and mediated relations to the world sustained in the wake of Cavell's own passing 2018 by an ongoing current of thought on the idea of temporality itself The Planetary Report, 1989 The Grand Rapids Furniture Record, 1928 Nineteenth Century and After, 1910 Faithful to the Future Brother Emile of Taizé, 2013-11-21 Faithful to the Future examines the true nature of Christian Tradition and particularly how it implies a fidelity not only to the past but to the future as well tradition appears to be inseparable from creativity and reform Congar's sense of the future and his conviction that something very important is happening in history led him to re-emphasize forgotten dimensions of Christian tradition especially those that value the human person When Congar reflected on Church authority and how it is best exercised he was not thinking about a power that curtails freedom Seeking to rediscover what is specific to Christianity he described authority as a reality that is at the service of growth where paying attention to the unknown and the unexpected is of the utmost importance Congar was one of the greatest artisans of Vatican II and his writings are characterized by the urgent call for the reforms made necessary by a changing world and by an understanding of catholicity a sense of the Church that is not sectarian but that lives and thinks according to the whole This volume explores the four themes that are prominent in Congar's writings namely tradition reform catholicity and authority The book does not assume a detailed knowledge of Congar's writings but addresses a difficulty that is frequently encountered in the present time no one better than Yves Congar has shown that the Church is not a system The Nineteenth Century and After, 1910 Utopia Emily Kame Kngwarreye, 2008 Activities and annual accounts of the Council's national responsibilities Pathology and the Postmodern Dwight Fee, 2000-02-11 This is a wonderful volume powerfully written timely insightful and filled with major pieces the passion intellectual rigor and sense of history found here promises to shape this field in the decades to come This volume sets the agenda for the future Norman K Denzin University of Illinois Pathology and the Postmodern explores the relationship between mental distress and social constructionism using new work from eminent scholars in the fields of sociology psychology and philosophy The authors address how specific cultural economic and historical forces converge in contemporary psychiatry and psychology how new syndromes subjectivities and identities are being constructed and Kunst & Museumjournaal, 1990 Twentieth Century, 1910 The Nineteenth century and after London Hapi, Hispanic American Periodicals Index 1999, 2001-06 The Subject Index to Periodicals, 1929
