Papadopoulos, Piet De Jong,2007 The archives of the American School excavations in the Athenian Agora contain a remarkable series of watercolors and drawings well over 400 by Piet de Jong one of the best known most distinctive and influential archaeological illustrators of the 20th century They show landscapes people and above all objects recovered during many seasons of fieldwork at one of the longest continuously running archaeological projects in Greece This volume brings these illustrations out of the storage drawers and assembles in color a representative sample of some of the finest of Piet de Jong s contributions Along the way the book tells the story of the Agora excavations and assesses their contribution to scholarship It includes essays by 15 scholars currently working at the Agora and surveys the entire span of the material they are studying from Neolithic pottery to the Late Byzantine and post Byzantine frescoes from the Church of Ayios Spyridon The Connoisseur, 1924 Cosmos Alexander von Humboldt, 1900 The Fortnightly Review, 1907 Wilson's Photographic Magazine, 1911 Computer Interpretation of Metaphoric Phrases Sylvia Weber Russell, 2015-11-13 The computational approach of this book is aimed at simulating the human ability to understand various kinds of phrases with a novel metaphoric component That is interpretations of metaphor as literal paraphrases are based on literal meanings of the metaphorically used words This method distinguishes itself from statistical approaches which in general do not account for novel usages and from efforts directed at metaphor constrained to one type of phrase or to a single topic domain The more interesting and novel metaphors appear to be based on concepts generally represented as nouns since such concepts can be understood from a variety of perspectives The core of the process of interpreting nominal concepts is to represent them in such a way that readers or hearers can infer which aspects of the nominal concept is likely to be intended to be applied to its interpretation These aspects are defined in terms of verbal and adjectival predicates A section on the representation and processing of part sentence verbal metaphor will therefore also serve as preparation for the representation of salient aspects of metaphorically used nouns As the ability to process metaphorically used verbs and nouns facilitates the interpretation of more complex tropes computational analysis of two other kinds of metaphorically based expressions are outlined metaphoric compound nouns such as idea factory and together with the representation of inferences modified metaphoric idioms such as Put the cat back into the bag
