An Experience:

The Feeling of Transcendence, an Experience of God? Louis Roy, 2021-04-15 In this book Louis Roy takes account of the fact that in the last fifty years numerous people in the secularized West have responded yes to surveys that asked Are you aware of having had an experience during which you felt in the presence of a dimension or a reality very different from ordinary human life Are such experiences mere illusions Some thinkers like Feuerbach and Freud believed so Are such experiences encounters with God Karl Barth a great Protestant theologian did not think much of their worth On this issue psychologists and theologians are divided Roy argues that those experiences are valid that they possess a real potential and that they can open their recipients to a genuine wisdom He reports on eight narratives spells out their constitutive elements classifies them into four categories aesthetic ontological ethical and interpersonal and suggests criteria to assess their concrete authenticity Thus this book will appeal to educated readers interested in spirituality philosophy of religion psychology literature theology and pastoral ministry

Power and the Spirit of God : Toward an Experience-Based Pneumatology Bernard Cooke Loyola Professor of Theology College of the Holy Cross (Emeritus), 2004-10-28 In this book the distinguished Roman Catholic theologian Bernard Cooke reassesses the long standing Christian description of divine power The word power evokes the spheres of economic political and social life Cooke suggests however that the deepest questions about conflicting powers are theological and concern what Christians have traditionally referred to as the Holy Spirit and salvation
